FEDERICO (“FRED”) CHEEVER

1957–2017

This issue of the Denver Law Review is dedicated to our beloved faculty advisor, Professor Fred Cheever. Having served as an advisor to our journal since 2004, Professor Cheever left a lasting impact on our organization and each of our members, both past and present. After he tragically passed away this summer, our Executive Board sought to honor his legacy. So, we asked some of his closest colleagues and a former student to write about their most cherished memories of Professor Cheever. These five tributes attempt to capture the life of a great professor, a devoted advisor, and one of the nicest persons you will ever meet. Of course, no amount of writing can adequately describe the essence or importance of Professor Cheever's life. And Professor Cheever's contribution to the Denver Law Review and the legal community cannot be summarized in five short tributes—but we tried our best. If you had the pleasure of knowing Professor Cheever, these stories will make you proud to have known him. Some stories may make you laugh or cry, and others may help you recall fond memories of him. If you did not have the opportunity to meet him, we hope these pieces allow you to picture the presence of his greatness—as a mentor, as a teacher, as a lawyer, and as a friend. Professor Cheever: we miss you greatly, now and every day.
