THE ALBANY HOTEL
Denver, Colorado
August 12-13, 1963
GENERAL INFORMATION

The Albany Hotel:
The Albany is located at 17th and Stout Street, Denver 2, Colo., within the downtown business district. All rooms including the conference and banquet facilities are air-conditioned. Single accommodations range in price from $6.50 to $9.50, and doubles, $9.50 to $13.00, plus tax. Arrangements should be made directly with The Albany or with other nearby hotels.

Registration:
Registration will be held on the morning of August 12, starting at 8 a.m., and continuously throughout the conference. The fees are as follows:

- Technical sessions only...........$6.00
- Banquet........................................5.00

Total $11.00
Registration materials will be available at the Conference Registration Desk at The Albany.

Banquet and social hour:
On Monday evening, August 12, there will be a social hour from 6 to 7 p.m., and a banquet at 7 p.m. The featured speaker at the banquet will be Mr. Robert E. Michaelis of the Spectrographs Standard Samples Division of the Spectrochemistry Section, Analytical and Inorganic Chemistry Division of the National Bureau of Standards, Washington, D.C. Bob will be speaking on The new $104 million NBS research facility, now under construction at Gaithersburg, Maryland. His talk will be of a non-technical nature and wives and friends will be welcome at the banquet. Banquet tickets may be purchased at the registration desk until 12:00 noon, Monday, August 12.
About the conference:

An air of informality prevails at this conference, and the conferees will have ample opportunity for mixing with one another discussing mutual problems, vacations, etc. A number of instrument manufacturers will exhibit some of their equipment in rooms adjacent to the conference area.
