DJILP Alumni Subscriptions

The DJILP offers you a special Alumni subscription rate which will bring our in-depth and thought provoking articles to your mailbox at an unbeatable price. At the same time, your new subscription will help support an important DU program that encourages students to use their skills where they can make the most difference – the public sector.

You continue to be integral to the Journal's success, and we offer you a unique opportunity with this special rate. We have crunched the numbers and determined it costs $25.00 to print and mail four issues annually to each subscriber. We partnered with the Alumni Development Office to include a $5.00 donation to the Loan Repayment Assistance Program Fund (LRAP) with each new subscription. Established in 2003, this endowed fund provides support assisting with loan repayments for Sturm College of Law graduates who enter public interest positions. Journal alumni have already benefited from this important program, and LRAP will encourage many future Journal members to employ their talents in the public arena.

To take advantage of this superb deal, please include a note to this effect when mailing your subscription payment to DJILP.
