UNIVERSITY OF DENVER COLLEGE OF LAW
TRANSPORTATION LAW JOURNAL

The Transportation Law Journal is a major professional publication in the field of transportation law, and is dedicated to maintaining its position as a valuable working tool for the practicing bar, government, and the academic community. It addresses both domestic and international developments of legal, regulatory, economic and political interest in all modes of transportation—aviation/airports, motor, rail, maritime, aerospace, and pipelines, freight forwarders, and brokers.

The Transportation Law Journal is sponsored jointly by the Transportation Law Program of the University of Denver College of Law and the Transportation Lawyers Association, the largest bar association of its kind in the United States and Canada.

The Transportation Law Journal is published three times a year, summer, fall, and spring, by the students of the University of Denver College of Law. Fourth class postage paid at Lincoln, Nebraska, and at additional mailing offices.

Correspondence should be addressed to Transportation Law Journal, University of Denver College of Law, 7039 East 18th Avenue, Denver, Colorado 80220; (303) 871-6162. FAX: (303) 871-6165. E-mail: tlj@student.law.du.edu. Advertising rates are available on request.

Inquiries regarding submission of manuscripts for publication should be addressed to the Editor in Chief. All manuscripts are carefully considered by the Board of Editors, which reserves the right to make final publication decisions. Manuscript preparation instructions are available on request.

The opinions expressed herein do not necessarily reflect the views of the Transportation Law Journal, the University of Denver, or the Transportation Lawyers Association.

UNIVERSITY of DENVER

College of Law
Transportation Law Program

To Prospective Law Students:

Transportation is an enormously important industry, an essential part of the nation's infrastructure of travel, communications and commerce.

Transportation is a vast industry, accounting for 16% of the Gross National Product, with networks of airlines, railroads, trucking companies, busses, pipelines, barge lines and ocean vessels linking the far corners of the nation and the world.

The evolution of public policy in transportation, moving from regulation to deregulation, has made the practice of transportation law a dynamic, challenging arena, integrating principles of law and economics. The transformation of the regulatory landscape creates new opportunities for lawyers as transportation firms transform themselves into lean and aggressive market driven companies.

Few industries offer a young lawyer such a dynamic landscape of shifting law and policy, one filled with challenge and opportunity. The pages of the Transportation Law Journal reflects these dynamics.

The University of Denver's Transportation Law Program is the premiere such program in the United States. If transportation law is what you want to do, the University of Denver is the place to do it. If you are a prospective law student, write me, and ask for our catalog.

Sincerely,

Dear Subscriber,

This issue highlights many of the extraordinary changes and concerns in the transportation industry today. With the new millenium underway, new problems and issues relating to the industry are arising in the legal and business arena. These issues facing the practitioner and the client can be unsettling and confusing.

Keeping this in mind we bring you a compilation of articles and comments, which are timely and informative. This issue crosses many boundaries from railroad nuisance jurisprudence to the use of defibrillators on board commercial aircraft. In addition, we are proud to publish two Transportation Law Journal staff in this issue, Dave Glynn and Svetlana Mosin.

I wish to thank all the staff and Board who put countless hours into this issue. We are excited to bring you Volume 27:2 of the Transportation Law Journal. Thank you for your continued support of the TLJ. We hope you enjoy this issue.

Very truly yours,

Audrey Simon
Editor-in-Chief
