UNIVERSITY OF DENVER COLLEGE OF LAW
TRANSPORTATION LAW JOURNAL

The Transportation Law Journal is a major professional publication in the field of transportation law, and is dedicated to maintaining its position as a valuable working tool for the practicing bar, government, and the academic community. It addresses both domestic and international developments of legal, regulatory, economic and political interest in all modes of transportation—aviation/airports, motor, rail, maritime, aerospace, and pipelines, freight forwarders, and brokers.

The Transportation Law Journal is sponsored jointly by the Transportation Law Program of the University of Denver College of Law and the Transportation Lawyers Association, the largest bar association of its kind in the United States and Canada.

The Transportation Law Journal is published three times a year, summer, fall, and spring, by the students of the University of Denver College of Law. Fourth class postage paid at Lincoln, Nebraska, and at additional mailing offices.

Correspondence should be addressed to Transportation Law Journal, University of Denver College of Law, 7039 East 18th Avenue, Denver, Colorado 80220; (303) 871-6162. FAX: (303) 871-6165. E-mail: transplj@mercury.cair.du.edu. Advertising rates are available on request.

Inquiries regarding submission of manuscripts for publication should be addressed to the Editor in Chief. All manuscripts are carefully considered by the Board of Editors, which reserves the right to make final publication decisions. Manuscript preparation instructions are available on request.

The opinions expressed herein do not necessarily reflect the views of the Transportation Law Journal, the University of Denver, or the Transportation Lawyers Association.

UNIVERSITY of DENVER

College of Law
Transportation Law Program

To Prospective Law Students:

Transportation is an enormously important industry, an essential part of the nation's infrastructure of travel, communications and commerce. Transportation is a vast industry, accounting for 16% of the Gross National Product, with networks of airlines, railroads, trucking companies, busses, pipelines, barge lines and ocean vessels linking the far corners of the nation and the world.

The evolution of public policy in transportation, moving from regulation to deregulation, has made the practice of transportation law a dynamic, challenging arena, integrating principles of law and economics. The transformation of the regulatory landscape creates new opportunities for lawyers as transportation firms transform themselves into lean and aggressive market driven companies.

Few industries offer a young lawyer such a dynamic landscape of shifting law and policy, one filled with challenge and opportunity. The pages of the Transportation Law Journal reflects these dynamics.

The University of Denver's Transportation Law Program is the premiere such program in the United States. If transportation law is what you want to do, the University of Denver is the place to do it. If you are a prospective law student, write me, and ask for our catalog.

Sincerely,

UNIVERSITY of DENVER

Transportation Law Journal

Dear Subscriber,

Last fall, a historical event took place at the University of Denver. For the first time, the Secretary of Transportation of the United States Rodney E. Slater, the Secretary of Communications and Transportation of Mexico Carlos Ruiz Sacristan, and the Minister of Transport of Canada David M. Collette convened together to discuss North American intermodal issues. The secretaries were joined by a distinguished list of transportation executives, labor representatives, and prominent members of the academic community from around North America. This meeting, the North American Intermodal Transportation Summit, was organized by the Intermodal Transportation Institute at the University of Denver and with the direction and leadership of Gilbert E. Carmichael, chairman of the ITI Board of Directors, and Joseph S. Szyliowicz, faculty director of ITI and professor in the Graduate School of International Studies.

This distinguished group of individuals met over two days in October 1997. The following manuscript is the report on the proceedings of the Summit produced by ITI. It includes panel discussion summaries, individual remarks from the secretaries, and a review of a roundtable discussion. The Transportation Law Journal (TLJ) is the only law journal in North America reproducing this report with the help and permission of the ITI at the University of Denver.

All of us at the TLJ are very proud to offer this timely report to our subscribers. While many individuals made this issue possible, two people, in particular, deserve special recognition. On behalf of the Editorial Board of the TLJ, I would like to thank Sheri Straily and Cathy Johnson for their significant contributions to this issue. Without Cathy's and Sheri's assistance, this issue would not have been possible.

I hope you enjoy the Proceedings on the North American Intermodal Summit. As always, if you have comments or suggestions on this issue or any other TLJ issue, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Thank you for your continued support!

Best Wishes,
