Dear Colorado Voter:

This booklet provides information on two subjects to be decided by voters at the November 5, 2002, election. The first subject is proposed changes to the state constitution and state statutes. The second subject is the retention of judges. The booklet presents this information in three sections.

Analyses of Proposed Changes to the Colorado Constitution and the Statutes

The first section contains an analysis of each proposed change to the state constitution and state statutes. The state constitution requires the nonpartisan research staff of the General Assembly to prepare these analyses and to distribute them in a ballot information booklet to active registered voters. Each analysis describes the major provisions of a proposal and comments on the proposal's application and effect. It also summarizes major arguments for and against each proposal and the proposal's estimated fiscal impact. Careful consideration has been given to the arguments in an effort to fairly represent both sides of the issue. The Legislative Council, the committee of the General Assembly responsible for reviewing the analyses, takes no position on the merits of the proposals.

Title and Text of Proposed Referred and Initiated Measures

The second section contains the title and the legal language of each proposed change to the state constitution and state statutes.

Information on the Retention of Judges

Information about the performance of Colorado Supreme Court Justices, Court of Appeals Judges, and trial judges in your area of the state is included in the third section of this booklet. The information was prepared by the state and district commissions on judicial performance to provide voters with fair, responsible, and constructive evaluations of judges and justices seeking retention in office. Each profile includes a recommendation stated as "RETAIN," "DO NOT RETAIN," or "NO OPINION."

Sincerely,

Representative Doug Dean, Chairman

NOTES

AMENDMENT 27
CAMPAIGN FINANCE

The proposed amendment to the Colorado Constitution:

- ◆ reduces the amount of money that individuals and political committees can contribute to candidates and various political organizations;
- ◆ limits the amount of money that political parties can contribute to candidates;
- ◆ creates small donor committees which may accept up to $50 per individual per year, and allows these committees to contribute ten times more to candidates than can an individual;
- ◆ sets voluntary spending limits for political races;
- ◆ recalculates contribution and spending limits for inflation every four years, but such recalculation may not change contribution limits;
- ◆ requires reporting and disclosure of money spent for certain political advertisements;
- ◆ requires individuals who contribute over $100 to disclose their occupation and employer; and
- ◆ regulates ballot issue committees

Background

Campaign finance is regulated by federal law for candidates in federal races; Colorado law regulates campaign finance for state and local candidates. Courts have also been involved in campaign finance by setting limits on what such laws can regulate and ruling on specific federal and state campaign finance provisions. This proposal changes Colorado campaign finance law and places the changes in the state constitution.

Contribution limits. Table 1 shows the maximum amount of money that can be contributed to candidates under this proposal.

1. The proposed contribution limits double for a candidate who has accepted voluntary spending limits if his or her opponent has not accepted the voluntary spending limits and has raised more than 10 percent of the spending limit.

2. Spending of personal money is counted as a political party contribution when a candidate accepts voluntary spending limits. Any unexpended campaign contributions that are carried forward to a subsequent election are also counted as political party contributions.

3. Corporations and labor unions may establish political committees and small donor committees which may contribute to candidates.

4. Under the proposal, the governor and lieutenant governor are considered one office and the contribution and spending limits for governor apply to both candidates.

In addition to limiting contributions to candidates, the proposal limits the amount of money that individuals and various organizations may contribute to political parties, political committees, and small donor committees, as follows.

Contributions to Political Parties

- Under current law, individuals, organizations, and political committees can annually contribute up to $25,000 to each affiliate of a political party, including state, county, district, and local affiliates. The proposal limits contributions to a total of $3,000 for all affiliates of a political party. Of the $3,000, the state-level political party affiliate may receive no more than $2,500.
- The proposal also limits the amount of money that small donor committees can annually contribute to all affiliates within a political party to $15,000 combined. Of the $15,000, the state-level political party affiliate may receive no more than $12,500
- Corporations and labor unions cannot contribute to political parties.

Contributions to Political Committees

- The proposal reduces the amount of money that individuals and organizations can contribute to political committees from $25,000 per year to $500 every two years.

Contributions to Small Donor Committees

- The proposal caps individual contributions to a small donor committee at $50 per year.

Currently, political committees are not allowed to knowingly accept contributions from non-U.S. citizens, foreign governments, or foreign corporations that do not have authority to do business in Colorado. The proposal extends the prohibition to candidates, small donor committees, and political parties.

Voluntary spending limits. The proposal establishes voluntary campaign spending limits. Table 2 lists the spending limits in the proposal; current law does not contain any such limits.

Table 2. Proposed Voluntary Spending Limits per Election Cycle

Candidate	Voluntary Spending Limit
Governor/ Lieutenant Governor	$2,500,000
Secretary of State	$500,000
Attorney General	$500,000
State Treasurer	$500,000
State Senate	$90,000
State House of Representatives	$65,000
State Board of Education	$65,000
Regent of the University of Colorado	$65,000
District Attorney	$65,000

A candidate's decision to accept the spending limits is binding unless an opponent running for the same office does not accept the limits. Candidates who agree to spending limits may advertise their compliance in political messages. When a candidate agrees to limit spending but an opponent does not, the candidate may receive double the maximum contributions if the opponent has raised more than 10 percent of the spending limit. Any personal money the candidate uses for his or her campaign counts as a political party contribution. Candidates who exceed the spending limits after agreeing to voluntarily limit campaign spending can be fined.

Adjustment to contribution and spending limits. The contribution and voluntary spending limits will be recalculated for inflation every four years, but such recalculation may not change contribution limits. Current law requires that contribution limits be increased by 10 percent beginning January 1, 2003, and every four years thereafter.

Unexpended campaign contributions. Current law lists the permissible uses for unexpended campaign contributions for candidates. This proposal further regulates these contributions by requiring that any money carried forward for use in the next election be counted as a contribution from a political party.

Regulation of political advertisements. This proposal regulates two types of political advertisements. The first are those that are made outside the control of a candidate and that specifically urge the election or defeat of a candidate. The proposal requires reporting of the amount of money spent on the advertisement, the type of advertisement, and the name of the candidate being supported or opposed whenever more than $1,000 is spent. Further, when any money is spent outside the control of a candidate on this type of advertising during the 30 days before an election, the report must be made within 48 hours. Information about who is paying for the advertisement and a statement that it is not authorized by any candidate must appear in these types of political advertisements. Current law, which requires reporting of all expenditures in excess of $1,000 within 24 hours and requires certain disclosure in political advertisements, was struck down by the federal district court.

The second type of political advertisement is one that clearly refers to a candidate without specifically urging the election or defeat of the candidate. These advertisements are regulated during the 30 days before a primary election and the 60 days before a general election. Any individual or organization who spends over $1,000 on these advertisements must report the total amount spent and the name and address of any donor who gives more than $250 to fund the advertisement. When the donor is an individual, the reports must also contain the individual's occupation and the name of the individual's employer. Current law does not regulate this type of political advertising.

Corporations and labor unions are not allowed to directly fund the two types of political advertisements regulated under this proposal.

Reporting. The proposal extends current reporting requirements to small donor committees and requires any person who contributes over $100 to a candidate, political committee, issue committee, or political party to disclose his or her occupation and employer.

Penalties. Under this proposal, violating contribution or voluntary spending limits results in a civil penalty of at least double, and up to five times, the amount contributed, received, or spent over the allowable amount. Current law makes violations of campaign finance provisions a class 2 misdemeanor; violations of contribution limits are subject to a civil penalty of double the amount contributed or received.

Arguments For

1) This proposal may reduce the impact of special interests on the political process and increase the influence of individual citizens. Large monetary contributions give the appearance that wealthy contributors have undue influence over elections and better access to elected officials. By reducing the amount of money that a candidate can accept from special interests and creating small donor committees, the proposal encourages fundraising from a broad base of individual donors.

2) The increasing cost of financing campaigns may discourage people from running for public office, especially against opponents with large campaign funds. Voluntary spending limits could reduce the overall amount spent on campaigns, while lower contribution limits could allow more challengers to compete with incumbents in raising campaign funds. The voters benefit when there are more people running for public office.

3) Requiring greater disclosure of who pays for political advertising provides more information about who is spending money to influence elections. Now, some types of political advertisements are not regulated and therefore can be paid for anonymously. The proposal gives people information about who is paying for these advertisements right before an election.

4) Although corporations and labor unions cannot vote, spending by such entities influences the political process. Under this proposal, these organizations will have to raise money from employees, shareholders, and members who contribute to small donor and political committees rather than directly funding political activities. Corporations and labor unions are already banned from directly contributing to federal candidates; this proposal simply extends the ban to state races.

5) Voluntary spending limits may encourage more people to run for public office. People who are intimidated by the amount of money raised and spent on political campaigns may choose to run for public office with voluntary spending limits in place.

Arguments Against

1) Increased regulation of campaign contributions and expenditures has never fulfilled its promise of getting "big money" out of the process. Whether it is at the state or national level, every time tougher controls are placed on campaign financing, big money finds less discernible ways to exert influence. The consequence is more campaign spending outside the control of the candidate and less accountability. Plus, this measure places these detailed campaign finance regulations in the state constitution. If historical patterns are followed, and the new regulations have unintended negative consequences, there is no easy way to make corrections.

2) The contribution limits in current law are more reasonable than those in the proposal. Lower contribution limits may mean that candidates spend more time fundraising than talking with voters about positions on issues. Contribution limits may benefit incumbents since challengers must typically outspend incumbents to overcome name recognition and other advantages of an officeholder. In addition, the proposal may give wealthy candidates a greater advantage over other candidates since candidates can spend an unlimited amount of their own money on their campaign. Further, small donor committees may have an advantage over individuals and political committees because they can contribute ten times more money to candidates.

3) Voluntary spending limits restrict the amount of money available to a candidate to communicate his or her positions to voters. As a result, when voters cast their ballots, they will have less information about candidates than they currently do, which will undermine public confidence in the process and the officials elected. In any event, if candidates are required to limit the amounts they can raise in political campaigns, interest groups will spend money in elections through indirect forms of political support, none of which need to be reported to election officials or the public.

4) Disclosure requirements in current law are sufficient and are a better way to regulate campaign finance. Press reports and opposition campaigns already make the sources of candidates' funding public. Requiring people to disclose their occupation and employer when they contribute over a certain amount of money may discourage people from donating to a candidate or organization.

5) Since the voluntary spending limit applies to both a primary and general election, a candidate who faces a primary election may be at a financial disadvantage compared to a candidate who does not have a primary. Accordingly, the voluntary spending limits may reduce or restrict candidate participation and communication with voters.

Estimate of Fiscal Impact

The proposal is expected to increase state and local revenues and expenditures. State revenue is expected to increase by $1,200 per year from fines imposed on late filings of campaign finance reports. State expenditures of the Colorado Department of State will increase due to the proposal's increased reporting requirements for both small donor committees and "electioneering" communications. These costs are expected to total $86,768 in budget year 2002-03. Beginning July 1, 2003, the proposal will increase the department's costs by an estimated $94,480. These costs include salaries and benefits for two additional employees. The proposal will also increase the number of campaign finance reports filed with local election officials.

AMENDMENT 28
MAIL BALLOT ELECTIONS

The proposed amendment to the Colorado Revised Statutes:

- ◆ requires most elections held after January 1, 2005, to be conducted only by mail ballot and eliminates voting in precinct polling locations;
 - ◆ allows local election officials to determine the method of voting in the few elections that do not require mail ballots;
 - ◆ requires all mail ballots to be returned in a signed envelope either by mail, at drop-off sites, or at designated polling locations on election day;
- adds new security and other requirements for conducting elections by mail and for qualifying ballots before votes are counted; and
- ◆ increases the penalties for mail-ballot election fraud and other offenses.

Background

Current law allows certain elections to be held exclusively by mail ballot. Mail ballot elections cannot be used when political party candidates are on the ballot. For example, mail ballot elections are not allowed for a primary, general, or congressional vacancy election or any election held on the same day as these elections. Current law also allows voters in any election to vote by mail using an absentee ballot. This proposal requires that all elections, except certain local elections, be held by mail ballot.

Mail ballot elections under current law. Currently, when an election is conducted by mail, each active registered voter is sent a packet of election materials 15 to 25 days before election day. This packet contains a ballot, instructions for completing the ballot, an inner envelope, and a return envelope. A voter must complete the ballot, place it in the inner envelope, sign and date the return envelope, and send the packet back to the election official in the return envelope. A ballot must be received by an election official before 7 p.m. on election day to be counted. Before opening the packet, an election official checks that the signature on the envelope matches the printed name on the envelope. If the names match and the ballot is otherwise qualified, it is ready to be counted. The Secretary of State is responsible for overseeing mail ballot elections, which are conducted by local election officials.

Proposed changes for mail ballot elections. The Secretary of State is required to supervise mail ballot elections and develop rules to implement the proposal. Local election officials are required to follow new procedures for conducting mail ballot elections. For example, beginning in 2005, the proposal requires election judges to compare the signature on the ballot envelope against the voter's signature on file with the election official. Signatures that do not match must be reviewed by two other election judges from different political parties. If an election law appears to have been violated, the judges are required to submit questionable signatures to the district attorney. The proposal increases the maximum fine for falsely submitting a ballot or unduly influencing a voter from $5,000 to $10,000.

Proposed changes for polling booth voting. For elections involving political party candidates, the proposal requires election officials to maintain polling booth locations on election day at public high schools prior to 2010. Beginning in 2010, election officials must maintain at least one polling booth location in the county. Under the proposal, voters at polling booth locations may use private voting booths to cast the ballot received in the mail or a replacement ballot obtained at the polling booth location. Ballots cast at polling places are enclosed in an inner envelope and a signed return envelope, just like ballots returned by mail or at a drop-off site. In contrast, current law requires a separate polling place for each precinct in elections involving political party candidates. Also, voters currently cast ballots provided to them at the polling place, without a name or other mark to identify the voter.

Arguments For

1) Voting by mail is convenient and may increase the number of voters participating in elections. In the November 2001 election, mail ballot elections may have increased voter turnout since counties with mail ballot elections had an average turnout of 41 percent while those with traditional polling places had a turnout of 32 percent. People can complete their ballots where and when they have time to consider the candidates and issues. Inconveniences such as bad weather, child care arrangements, or long lines at the polls will no longer be obstacles to voting. In addition, allowing citizens to vote early may limit the influence of last-minute negative campaigning.

2) This proposal expands the current practice of conducting elections by mail and adds new security precautions. In the November 2001 election, more than 88 percent of all votes were cast by mail. This and other mail ballot elections, along with an increasing number of votes cast by absentee ballot, have given election officials experience in conducting elections by mail. In addition, the proposal adds new provisions to improve the security of all mail ballot elections, such as requiring election officials to verify voter signatures.

3) Mail ballot elections may be less expensive for governments to conduct than other elections because they eliminate the need for voting machines and reduce the need for election judges for each precinct. In addition, with ballots sent automatically to voters and all voters using the same type of ballot, mail ballot elections may be a more uniform system than Colorado's current election system.

Arguments Against

1) Mail ballots are vulnerable to fraud because the ballots are out of the control of voters and election officials while being delivered. These ballots can be illegally cast, stolen, or sold. The signature verification process is new and subject to the opinion of election judges who may not be able to distinguish between forged and valid signatures. As a result, some forged ballots may be counted, and some valid ballots may be disqualified. Mail ballots may also be disqualified for procedural reasons such as missing the deadline for returning a ballot; sending a ballot with insufficient postage; errors by post office and election officials; or not signing, dating, or listing an address on the return envelope.

2) People who vote by mail may be subject to pressure from employers, family members, and interest groups to vote a certain way when they complete their ballot away from the protection of election judges and private voting booths. Ballot secrecy is also threatened because a voter's name is clearly visible on the return envelope.

3) This proposal is unnecessary because voters can already choose to vote by mail by using an absentee ballot. Also, voters may currently obtain a sample ballot to help familiarize themselves with the issues before casting their vote at a polling place. Mail ballot voting may even lessen voters' ability to cast an informed vote if they vote early and miss out on late-breaking news. Politicians may lengthen their political campaigns to appeal to early voters. Furthermore, this proposal may confuse voters by eliminating traditional voting methods.

Estimate of Fiscal Impact

The proposal requires most elections held after January 1, 2005, to be conducted by mail. Elections conducted by mail may cost less than other elections because the cost of mailing ballots to voters is often less than the cost for traditional voting machines and election judges in each precinct. However, the proposal increases costs in the short term to purchase and upgrade county voting systems.

The proposal requires election officials to compare the signature on a mail ballot with the signature on file in the county clerk's office. New computer technology and a signature database would be required in most county clerk offices for election judges to be able to compare signatures from ballots with existing signatures on file. Currently, nineteen counties use a voter registration system supported by the state. This system would need to be modified to accommodate the requirement for signature comparison. Assuming that the requirements of the bill are implemented over two years, the modifications to the system are expected to cost the state $143,565 in budget year 2002-03 and $98,000 in budget year 2003-04. These costs would be paid from fees charged by the Department of State. A portion of these costs would be paid to extract signatures from the Department of Revenue's driver license database. Any costs associated with obtaining signatures in an electronic form would be paid by counties. Election officials would be responsible for paying postage costs for sending ballot packets to voters, but voters would pay the postage to return completed ballots.

AMENDMENT 29

SELECTING CANDIDATES FOR PRIMARY ELECTIONS

The proposed amendment to the Colorado Revised Statutes:

- ◆ eliminates the role of neighborhood caucus and assembly meetings in selecting candidates for the primary ballot;
- ◆ requires all major political party candidates to obtain a requisite number of petition signatures to appear on the primary ballot;

- ◆ changes the number of petition signatures required to qualify for the ballot for all but two political offices and expands the time allowed for collecting signatures;
- ◆ allows a candidate to include a 100-word personal statement on his or her petition;
- ◆ modifies the procedure for challenging and resolving conflicts about petition signatures; and
- ◆ does not require the election official to investigate the validity of signatures.

Background

State law sets forth the process for major political parties (currently the Democratic and Republican parties) to select candidates for the primary ballot. At a primary election, registered Democrats and Republicans vote for candidates to represent their party at the general election in November. To get on the primary ballot, candidates must either obtain votes cast at assembly meetings or collect petition signatures from voters affiliated with their party. Candidates designated through the assembly process are listed on the ballot before candidates who use the petition process. This proposal eliminates the option of obtaining votes at assemblies and requires all candidates to collect petition signatures to get on the primary ballot.

The caucus and assembly process. Under current law, caucus meetings are organized within each local election precinct to discuss political candidates and issues. To participate in a precinct caucus, a person must be registered to vote and must be affiliated with a major political party. At each neighborhood caucus, delegates are elected to attend an assembly. At an assembly, delegates vote to select the party's candidates for county, legislative, congressional, or statewide races. Candidates who receive at least 30 percent of the delegate votes cast at their assembly appear on the primary ballot. Most candidates are placed on the primary ballot through the caucus and assembly process.

The petition process. Currently, a candidate may choose to bypass the caucus and assembly process and collect petition signatures in order to appear on the primary ballot. The option to collect signatures also presently exists for any candidate who receives between 10 and 30 percent of the votes cast at the assembly. Any candidate who receives less than 10 percent of the vote at an assembly cannot be on the primary ballot.

Signature requirements. The proposal changes the number of signatures required to get on the primary ballot for most political offices, in most cases reducing the number from current law. Table 1 shows the signature requirements of current law and this proposal.

Table 1. Current and Proposed Petition Signature Requirements

Political Offices	Current Requirement for 2002 Primary Ballot	Proposed Signature Requirement
U.S. Senator and Governor	10,500; 1,500 from each congressional district	5,000; with at least 250 from each congressional district
U.S. Representative	1,000	1,000
Treasurer, Secretary of State, Attorney General	10,500; 1,500 from each congressional district	2,500; with at least 125 from each congressional district
State Board of Education or CU Regent	10,500 for at-large with 1,500 from each congressional district; 1,000 for districts	500 for at-large 250 for districts
State Legislator	474 to 1,000 for Senator 85 to 1,000 for Representative	300 for Senator 150 for Representative
Regional Transportation District (RTD) Board	250	250
District Attorney	1,000	200
County Offices	20 percent of the votes cast in previous election	50 in a county with fewer than 50,000 residents; 100 elsewhere

The proposal extends the time allowed for collecting signatures from roughly two months to roughly six months. Under current law, candidates may begin collecting signatures on the first Monday in April. This proposal allows candidates to begin collecting signatures as early as November 15 of the year before the election. The proposal also requires that signatures be submitted earlier in the year. Current law requires signatures to be submitted 70 days before the August primary election; this proposal requires signatures to be submitted 95 days before the primary. An election official has seven days to review the petitions and notify the candidate whether the petition appears to be sufficient. A person protesting the election official's decision must identify specific names being challenged and the basis for challenging those names. A protester may also be charged a fee that is reasonably related to the election official's cost of validating the signatures.

Arguments For

1) In Colorado, most candidates have been placed on primary ballots through the caucus and assembly process. Because caucus participation has been low, this process is often controlled by a relatively small number of party activists. The control of the caucus and assembly process by a limited number of people may pose a problem where one party has such a majority in a district that the primary election effectively determines the eventual winner in the general election. This proposal provides for a single system of nominating candidates through petitions.

2) This proposal may open up the political process to a greater number of candidates with a wider range of political views, giving voters more choice at the primary election. In 2000, only one in eight primary races was contested. Expanding the time allowed to collect signatures and reducing the number of signatures required make it easier for candidates to petition onto the primary ballot. With more choice among candidates, people may be more likely to vote in primary elections.

3) By eliminating the selection of candidates through caucuses and assemblies, this proposal makes Colorado consistent with those states that do not use such processes to place candidates on primary ballots. Political parties can still hold caucus and assembly meetings, and people can attend these meetings to discuss issues, party platforms, and candidates. The proposal allows political parties to spend their energy supporting their candidates in the more-important general election.

Arguments Against

1) Caucuses and assemblies are a good way for candidates and voters to meet and discuss issues, and anyone who is interested can attend. By eliminating the selection of candidates at assemblies, the proposal discourages citizens from being active in major political parties. As a result, the proposed system might actually give voters less information about candidates and fewer opportunities for direct interaction with candidates.

2) Colorado's current system offers more options for candidates than this proposal offers. The current system, which has been in place for decades, already allows candidates to petition onto the ballot. Also, incumbents should not have to collect signatures to indicate a minimum level of support within the party. This proposal takes away an incentive for attending party meetings, which may cause Colorado's major political parties to become fragmented and less able to set a cohesive statewide agenda. In addition, the proposal sets fixed signature requirements that do not automatically change with changes in the state's population.

3) By requiring an individual to declare his or her candidacy almost one month earlier than under current law, the proposal could prevent or deter some people from running for office. This timeline also lengthens the primary election season, and the political advertising that goes along with it, by one month. Collecting signatures may divert resources from promotion of a candidate's campaign message. Also, candidates will have to pay to challenge the validity of petition signatures.

Estimate of Fiscal Impact

The proposal will increase the number of petitions that must be reviewed by state and local election officials, although the number of signatures required on each petition is lower in many cases. Overall, the proposal is expected to increase the workload of the Colorado Department of State and county clerks in reviewing petitions and verifying petition signatures. The costs to the Department of State are expected to total $79,040 in budget year 2003-04, including costs for additional temporary staff and computer programming. In budget year 2005-06 and every other budget year thereafter, the department's costs are estimated to be $64,000 for temporary staff.

The proposal allows an election official to impose a fee for handling protests of the official's decision. The amount of any additional fee revenue will depend on the number of protests filed under the proposal. This additional revenue has not been estimated.

AMENDMENT 30

ELECTION DAY VOTER REGISTRATION

The proposed amendment to the Colorado Constitution:

- ◆ allows eligible Coloradans to register to vote and to cast a ballot on election day for all elections conducted after January 1, 2004.

Background

Colorado currently allows individuals to register to vote at various locations and by mail at any time up to 29 days before an election. A person is eligible to register to vote if he or she is a U.S. citizen, is eighteen years old at the time of the election, and is a resident of Colorado and the precinct in which he or she will vote for at least 30 days before the election. An individual registers by signing an affidavit that he or she meets the eligibility requirements. A person who is registered to vote in Colorado, but who moved and failed to re-register, may re-register at any time at their county clerk's office or on election day at their precinct polling place.

This proposal allows eligible individuals who are not registered to register and vote on election day by presenting valid identification at their precinct polling place or county clerk's office. Valid identification includes either a Colorado driver license, state identification card, or other documentation approved by state election officials.

The proposal applies to all elections including primary, general, special district, and municipal elections. The legislature is directed to enact necessary laws to protect against voter fraud.

Arguments For

1) Allowing people to register to vote on election day is likely to increase voter participation. Of the six states that allow election day voter registration, four have the highest rates of voter turnout in the country, and all but one have voter turnout higher than Colorado. Public interest in political campaigns generally peaks in the weeks before an election, after voter registration ends. This proposal encourages voter participation by making registration and voting as simple and convenient as possible.

2) The current requirement that a person register 29 days prior to an election is a barrier to voting. Election day voter registration provides more opportunity for people to register and vote. It would make voting more accessible for new residents, rural voters, college students, and people with limited access to transportation.

3) Colorado's reputation as a state with little election fraud will continue with election day voter registration. As a requirement for registration at the polls, an approved form of photo identification must be provided. Colorado already imposes significant penalties for election fraud, and the proposal requires that the legislature enact further safeguards as necessary. The six states that register voters on election day do not report problems with increased voter fraud.

Arguments Against

1) Allowing people to register to vote on election day may increase opportunities for voter confusion. The current 29-day registration deadline gives election officials an opportunity to verify that individuals are registered at only one address in the state. A list at each precinct indicates who is registered and who has already voted in the election. Allowing people to register on election day eliminates a safeguard against multiple votes. Further, the identification required by the proposal does not prove citizenship or residency. Because of voter confusion, some states have eliminated or are considering eliminating same-day voter registration.

2) Coloradans already have ample opportunities to register before an election. In the 2000 election, 73 percent of the state's voting age population were registered, active voters, and Colorado's voter turnout was higher than the national average. An individual may register to vote at many locations around the state, including any motor vehicle office, offices of political parties and candidates, libraries, temporary sites such as grocery stores, or social services offices. Registration forms may also be printed from the Internet and mailed to or dropped off at county clerks' offices.

3) Election day voter registration could be expensive for local governments to implement. Counties, cities, and special districts may have to provide additional staff and the necessary training for precinct workers. Additional ballots and computer equipment, telephones, and other administrative tools to prevent fraud could also add costs. Local governments could be required to staff precincts to register voters during a mail ballot election, even if voting is not taking place at the polling site. Voters may have to wait in long lines while election officials help people fill out forms and present identification.

Estimate of Fiscal Impact

Costs may be incurred for printing additional ballots, additional election officials at polling places, and computer-related expenses to register voters. Other costs to the offices of the county clerk are dependent upon the protections the legislature will require to prevent voter fraud.

AMENDMENT 31
ENGLISH LANGUAGE EDUCATION

The proposed amendment to the Colorado Constitution:

- ◆ requires that all public school students be taught in English unless they are exempted under the proposal;
- ◆ requires students who do not speak English (English learners) to be taught English through sheltered English language immersion programs and to be transferred to a regular classroom, generally after one year, unless a waiver is granted;
- ◆ allows parents or legal guardians to request a waiver from English immersion requirements under limited conditions and gives schools the power to approve or deny the request;
- ◆ authorizes a parent or legal guardian to sue for enforcement of the proposal and provides detailed penalties for teachers, administrators, and school board members; and
- ◆ requires all English learners in grades two through twelve to be tested annually in English using a national test of various academic subjects.

Background

Current federal and state laws require school districts to identify English learners, to test their English proficiency annually, and to establish programs to teach these students the English skills necessary to participate in a school's regular education program. Over 70,000 public school students, or approximately 9 percent of Colorado's public school enrollment, qualify as English learners. Generally, these students receive English language assistance through one of the following types of programs.

- English as a Second Language: In English as a Second Language (ESL) programs, English learners are taught entirely in English or mainly in English with some native language assistance. Typically, ESL classes include students with different native languages. English learners may attend the ESL program for a part of the day to work strictly on English skills, or attend for a full day and focus both on English and other academic subjects.

- Bilingual education programs: In bilingual programs, English learners are taught academic subjects in their native language while learning English. Bilingual classes usually have students who share the same native language. The length and content of bilingual programs vary, with some programs emphasizing the development of native language skills more than others.

Dual language programs or dual immersion programs: In dual language programs, subjects are taught in two languages in order to develop proficiency in both languages. Students in these programs may be fluent in English or be English learners.

Proposal for English immersion programs. The proposal requires school districts to teach English learners in English immersion programs. In these immersion programs, students will be taught English and other academic subjects in English at a level appropriate to their language skills. Generally, the length of time for students to participate in the program is one year, after which time students will begin attending regular classes. School districts may place English learners of different ages, but with similar English skills, in the same classroom. The proposal's requirements do not apply to foreign language programs or to special education programs.

Parents or legal guardians may request a waiver from the English immersion program for their child. Students who may be eligible for a waiver include: students who already possess adequate English skills, students who are ten years of age or older, and students with special needs. School officials decide whether to grant or deny the request for the waiver. Schools in which twenty or more students of the same grade level have received a waiver are required to offer a different type of program, such as a bilingual program. In all other cases, students with a waiver may transfer to a school that offers a different type of program of instruction.

Parents or legal guardians of any Colorado public school student may sue for enforcement of the proposal. Additionally, a school district employee or board member may be sued and may be held personally liable for "willfully and repeatedly" failing to implement English immersion programs. A final enforcement provision concerns parents of children with special needs. Parents who receive a waiver for their child with special needs have a ten-year window during which they may sue school officials for issuing the waiver, if the parents conclude that the waiver injured the education of their child.

Arguments For

1) Learning English as quickly as possible ensures that English learners are not left behind their peers. Current programs, including bilingual education, have not adequately addressed the needs of English learners, and this proposal provides a different approach. Under the proposal, English learners will be taught in English and placed into a school's regular academic program after one year. Learning English quickly will enable English learners to develop the necessary skills and knowledge to improve their future education and career choices.

2) Colorado needs a uniform statewide policy for teaching English learners. English learners who move between school districts may encounter different programs, which can delay their academic progress. Further, students should not be used as a part of educational experiments, as school districts try out different approaches to English instruction. The proposal focuses on students' acquisition of solid English skills, rather than the maintenance of native language skills, and provides a uniform philosophy for school districts. School districts retain enough flexibility to tailor programs to their students' needs.

3) Once English learners become reasonably fluent in English, they will be transferred into regular classrooms, increasing their opportunities to practice and use English. In addition, cultural awareness and interaction between children of different backgrounds will enhance the education of all children.

Arguments Against

1) The proposal restricts parental choice and local control of education. Many parents want their children to develop skills in more than one language so that they will be better prepared to live and work within a global economy. By requiring that all instruction be in English, the proposal limits the ability of school districts to offer innovative language programs, even if the programs are effective and respond to the needs and wishes of the school community. In addition, school districts may be cautious in granting waiver requests from parents seeking different programs because of the possibility of legal action against the school and its employees. Any teacher, administrator, or school board member who is found in violation of this amendment is subject to a lawsuit, and restricted from teaching or holding public office for five years. Parents retain the right to sue school district employees and school board members for up to ten years.

2) The speed by which a student learns cannot be mandated by law. The proposal creates an unrealistic expectation that English can be learned by all children in one year. However, the speed by which a child becomes fluent in English depends on the child's age, cultural circumstances, previous education, and socioeconomic background. Some children may take longer than one year to achieve a level of proficiency comparable to their English-speaking peers. If programs are too rigid, students' individual needs may not be met.

3) The proposal adds another layer of testing requirements for English learners. School districts will have to test English learners in English every year using a national test in addition to the Colorado Student Assessment Program (CSAP) tests. The additional testing for English learners means further administrative expense and time away from classroom teaching.

Estimate of Fiscal Impact

While the proposal will not increase or decrease state expenditures, local school districts' expenditures will be impacted. Under the proposal, some school districts will have to revamp their curricula, staff assignments, and testing procedures. However, the net impact to all school districts cannot be predicted because the impacts will vary depending on how each individual school district implements the proposal.

REFERENDUM A

EXEMPT ELECTED DISTRICT

ATTORNEYS FROM TERM LIMITS

The proposed amendment to the Colorado Constitution:

- ◆ eliminates term limits for elected district attorneys.

Background

Term limits. Colorado has term limits for elected state and local officials. The Colorado Constitution limits the length of office for the governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, state treasurer, and attorney general to two consecutive four-year terms. Members of the Colorado legislature may serve up to four consecutive two-year terms in the House of Representatives and two consecutive four-year terms in the Senate. Members of the State Board of Education and the University of Colorado Board of Regents are limited to two consecutive six-year terms.

The maximum term of office for local elected officials is two consecutive terms. Although not expressly stated in the constitution, the Colorado Attorney General interprets the limits on terms of local elected officials to also apply to elected district attorneys. The Colorado Constitution allows the voters of a political subdivision to eliminate or change the term limits for a local official. However, the Colorado Secretary of State determined that only the state legislature can put a proposal before the voters of a judicial district to alter term limits for that district. District attorney term limits can also be altered through a constitutional amendment. This proposal amends the constitution to repeal term limits for district attorneys.

District attorneys. Colorado is divided into 22 judicial districts. The voters in each judicial district elect one district attorney who is responsible for the prosecution of criminal cases in that district. The district attorney determines which crimes to prosecute and recommends a penalty to the court. The district attorney also provides legal advice to police officers, assists in preparing search warrants, advises grand jury investigations, and may defend the counties of the district in court. In addition, the district attorney oversees an office of deputy district attorneys and support staff and prepares and administers a budget for the office. The Colorado Constitution requires a district attorney to be a licensed attorney for at least five years prior to being elected and to be a resident of the district throughout his or her term in office. A district attorney's term of office is four years.

Arguments For

1) Eliminating term limits allows residents of a judicial district to retain the expertise and experience of their district attorney. District attorneys must have specialized legal skills including knowledge of criminal law, court procedures, and police functions. Seventeen of the 22 district attorneys, with a combined total of over 200 years in office, will be term limited in 2004.

2) Term limits are unnecessary because district attorneys are already accountable to the public. Voters may remove a district attorney through the normal election process or by a recall election. District attorneys work in a public forum where their acts are a matter of public record and open to review by citizens. Further, smaller, more rural districts may have difficulty attracting a candidate who meets the requirements of the position.

3) This proposal would eliminate the destabilizing effect that term limits could have on a district attorney's office. Citizens and law enforcement officers within a judicial district rely on consistent law enforcement practices that may change when term limits force a district attorney to step down. New district attorneys may be placed at a disadvantage when taking over complex cases from a term-limited district attorney. In addition, term limits might discourage skilled attorneys from running for district attorney as their prosecutorial career could end after two terms. Of the 17 states with term limits, only Colorado limits the length of service for the district attorney.

Arguments Against

1) Term limits provide a check on the decision-making power of district attorneys. A district attorney decides who to charge and which crimes to charge. Limiting district attorneys to two terms could lessen any concern the public may have that politically motivated decision-making occurs within the office. An exception should not be made for this elected official who has significant power to enforce criminal laws. In 2004, term limits will affect district attorneys for the first time, and this proposal removes term limits before their effects can be evaluated.

2) Term limits could result in more candidate choices for the voter. Incumbents have name recognition and financial advantages that are difficult for challengers to overcome. In the past 20 years, 78 percent of the district attorneys running for reelection did not have a challenger. Term limits could provide greater opportunity for attorneys who are not career prosecutors to bring new ideas to law enforcement. More competition for the office could also lead to more aggressive prosecutorial policies and greater responsiveness to public opinion over the long term. Unlimited years of service do not necessarily provide the citizens with better prosecutors or a more responsive and sound prosecutorial policy. Voters can be trusted to fill the office with a qualified candidate.

Estimate of Fiscal Impact

The proposal does not increase state or local expenditures or taxes, nor does it affect the amount of taxpayer refunds from either the state or local governments.

REFERENDUM B
PUBLIC/PRIVATE OWNERSHIP OF
LOCAL HEALTH CARE SERVICES

The proposed amendment to the Colorado Constitution:

- ◆ allows health care services or facilities provided by local governments, such as special districts, counties, and cities, to be provided through a partnership or joint ownership with private companies or individuals;
- ◆ provides that a local government's and private company's share of ownership in such services or facilities be based on the amount invested;
- ◆ prohibits local governments from going into debt or pledging credit to create and operate health care partnerships; and
- ◆ prevents a partnership created to provide a health care service from being considered a local government or public body.

Background

Local government health care services are provided primarily through county and special district hospitals and local health departments. Hospitals operated by local governments provide a range of health care services that are determined by a hospital board and applicable laws. The hospital board is either appointed by county commissioners or elected by the voters. Health departments carry out health programs and control disease. The proposal applies to these services and any other health care services provided by a local government.

In providing health care services, local governments can contract with each other or with private companies or individuals. Local governments can also jointly own health care services or facilities with other government bodies. However, local government health care services and facilities currently cannot be provided through joint ownership or partnership with private companies or individuals. If adopted, this proposal would be the second exemption to the constitutional prohibition on partnerships between local governments and private companies. The constitution currently allows partnerships to provide municipal utility services.

Arguments For

1) This proposal could expand the range of health care services available in communities. The development of health care programs requires considerable investment in new equipment and qualified personnel. Local governments could share the cost and the risk of starting up new facilities, technology, or clinical services with medical equipment companies, private hospitals, physicians, or other privately owned enterprises. Health care services could be expanded to include hospice care, emergency clinics, mobile mammography units, physical therapy, and surgery centers in areas of the state where they are not currently available. Reduced overhead and equipment costs, less duplication of services, and increased health care provider recruitment may result.

2) Health care partnerships may help provide new sources of revenue to keep existing health care facilities open, particularly in rural areas. This proposal gives local governments the flexibility to enter into business relationships that could help keep health facilities fiscally sound, keep dollars in the local community, prevent people from traveling long distances for medical care, and possibly reduce reliance on taxes. Elected local officials who oversee health care operations will continue to determine which services to provide, allowing local governments to maintain decision-making authority over health care services.

Arguments Against

1) Demand for a particular health care service should decide where it is provided. If providing services is economically feasible, private companies may provide the health care services without the help of public moneys. Governments should not risk public moneys by investing in private companies, and private companies should not be given the chance to benefit from the investment of public moneys. New partnerships and the private companies involved in these partnerships will not be subject to the same laws and level of public scrutiny as local governments. For example, laws on open public meetings and records and conflict of interest will not apply. In addition, local governments already have the flexibility to contract with private companies to provide health care services without entering into ownership agreements. Contracting offers the efficiency of the private sector with less risk to public moneys.

2) The interests of private companies or individuals may not always be to the public's benefit. This measure does not require private companies or individuals to be in the health care field to participate in these partnerships if the result is to provide a health care service, function, or facility. Companies could influence the types or delivery of health care services provided by partnerships, resulting in changes in health care services to maximize the opportunity for profits for private companies. Higher profits do not guarantee better health care services for local communities served by public health facilities.

Estimate of Fiscal Impact

The fiscal impact on local expenditures and revenues is dependent on the number, if any, of local governments that choose to enter into a partnership with a public or private entity in order to provide health care services. Because the number and nature of these arrangements are unknown, the impact cannot be quantified.

REFERENDUM C
QUALIFICATIONS FOR COUNTY CORONERS

The proposed amendment to the Colorado Constitution:

- ◆ permits the legislature to establish qualifications for the office of county coroner, including training and certification requirements.

Background

To run for county coroner, a person must be a U.S. citizen, at least eighteen years old, and a resident of the county for one year prior to an election. These qualifications are outlined in the state constitution. Based on a 1994 ruling by the Colorado Supreme Court, the legislature must have constitutional authority to impose any additional qualifications on the office of county coroner. This proposal allows the legislature to establish qualifications for county coroners, including training and certification requirements. The proposal does not specify the nature or extent of the requirements. The earliest that any qualifications established by the legislature could apply is the 2006 election.

State law requires coroners to determine the cause and manner of death in specific circumstances, including suspicious deaths, unexplained natural deaths, accidents of all types, and suicides. When such a death occurs, coroners must notify the district attorney, take custody of the body, conduct an independent investigation, cause an autopsy to be performed if necessary, and issue a death certificate. In investigating a death, coroners may have to identify the body, collect and document evidence, obtain medical records, perform tests or examinations of the body, notify the next of kin, or conduct an inquest. Coroners also have the authority to approve or deny organ and tissue donations for transplants in cases under their investigation.

State law encourages, but does not require, candidates for the office of coroner to possess knowledge and experience in the medical-legal investigation of death. Coroners are also encouraged by state law to participate in programs that provide education and training. Training is available through a variety of local and national resources, including a program to become a certified death investigator through the Colorado Coroners Association.

Arguments For

1) The complexities of coroner responsibilities require that the individual who holds the office meet minimum qualifications. Coroners are called upon to investigate numerous types of death which include, but are not limited to, all suspicious deaths, unexplained natural deaths, accidents of all types, and suicides. A coroner should have the expertise to properly determine the cause and manner of death and issue a death certificate. This document is used to determine insurance benefits for survivors and settle legal matters, both criminal and civil. In the event that the death is not properly certified, there may be legal or financial implications.

2) Training helps to ensure efficient, thorough, and accurate death investigations. Coroners work closely with state and federal agencies, physicians, law enforcement agencies, district and other attorneys, and insurance companies. Training may facilitate greater cooperation between coroners and the agencies and individuals with whom they work.

Arguments Against

1) The constitution should not be changed unless a significant problem exists. Currently, 75 percent of counties have coroners or staff members who are certified death investigators, and all counties have access to death investigation educational programs. The goal of training is being achieved without statutory requirements.

2) Allowing the legislature to establish qualifications and training requirements may narrow the pool of possible candidates. The legislature may develop qualifications that are difficult for some rural and smaller counties to implement. For example, candidates may be required to be certified, trained, or hold a medical degree. Such requirements could limit who is eligible for the office and make filling the office difficult.

Estimate of Fiscal Impact

This proposal will not affect state revenues or expenditures and will not require any new state spending. The cost impact to each county will depend on whether the requirements enacted by the legislature are more costly than what counties currently spend for their coroners.

REFERENDUM D

REPEAL OF OBSOLETE CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISIONS

The proposed amendment to the Colorado Constitution:

- ◆ removes expired provisions for events that have already occurred;
- ◆ strikes an obsolete reference to legislative authority relating to courts; and
- ◆ removes a congressional term-limits provision found unconstitutional by the Colorado Supreme Court in 1998.

Background

Expired provisions. The proposal removes four provisions related to the establishment of a statewide court system and judicial reform:

- a requirement that judges for the then newly created Denver juvenile and probate courts be elected at the 1964 General Election;
- a provision transferring cases from county courts to district courts, when district courts became courts of general jurisdiction effective January 1965;
- a provision that allows sitting judges in January 1967 to serve the remainder of their terms during the transition from elected to appointed judges; and

- language terminating the terms of office for sitting members of the Commission on Judicial Qualifications on July 1, 1983, when it was replaced by the Commission on Judicial Discipline.

The proposal removes two provisions relating to debt that has since been repaid:

- a reference to a 1991 state loan to the Limited Gaming Fund for the initial organizational and administrative expenses to establish gaming in Colorado; and
- a provision regarding the use of lottery proceeds collected from April 1, 1993, to June 30, 1998, for various capital construction projects that have been completed.

The proposal removes additional miscellaneous provisions:

- a 1902 provision regarding temporary officers for the newly established City and County of Denver; and
- provisions regarding annexation by Denver, Lakewood, or Aurora permitted between April 1, 1974, and December 20, 1974.

Obsolete reference to legislative authority. The proposal removes language from 1962 granting the state legislature the authority to provide simplified procedures in county courts for claims not exceeding $500. In 1964 and 1976, the state legislature passed laws directing the Judicial Branch to adopt procedures for these courts. The Supreme Court currently provides procedures for all claims filed in county courts and small claims courts.

Unconstitutional provision. The proposal removes a term-limits provision ruled unconstitutional by the Colorado Supreme Court in 1998. The provision directs state and congressional legislators to follow specific steps to amend the federal constitution to implement congressional term limits, and directs the state to note on the ballot which legislators failed to comply. The court found the provision violates the U.S. Constitution because it takes away the ability of state and congressional legislators to use their own judgment and, in effect, forces them to vote in a particular way.

Argument For

1) The proposal updates the constitution by deleting an unconstitutional provision, irrelevant language, and procedures that no longer serve a useful purpose. The state constitution should not be cluttered with obsolete provisions.

Argument Against

1) The proposal eliminates provisions that express the will of the people on term limits or have other historical significance. Removing these provisions may diminish the historical character of the constitution and make future research of constitutional provisions and state laws more difficult.

Estimate of Fiscal Impact

The proposal does not affect state or local revenues or expenditures.

REFERENDUM E CESAR CHAVEZ STATE HOLIDAY

The proposed amendment to the Colorado Revised Statutes:

- ◆ designates March 31st as "Cesar Chavez Day" and makes it a legal holiday for state employees.

Background

Cesar Estrada Chavez was an American civil rights and labor leader. He was born near Yuma, Arizona, on March 31, 1927, and died in 1993. After eighth grade, he left school and worked full time as a migrant farm worker to help support his family. He served in the U.S. Navy during World War II. During the 1950s, he was an organizer in the Community Service Organization, a civil rights group. Later, he founded the organization now known as the United Farm Workers of America. Through peaceful strikes and boycotts, his efforts resulted in agricultural labor reforms such as safe and sanitary working conditions, higher wages, and medical coverage. After his death, Cesar Chavez was awarded the Presidential Medal of Freedom, which is the highest civilian honor bestowed by the federal government.

State holidays in Colorado. The proposal increases the number of paid holidays for state employees from ten to eleven starting in 2003. Currently, the state holidays in Colorado are New Year's Day, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Day, Washington-Lincoln Day (also known as Presidents' Day), Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Columbus Day, Veterans' Day, Thanksgiving Day, and Christmas Day. Under current Colorado law, March 31st is recognized as an optional holiday in honor of Cesar Chavez. State agencies are required to remain open on that day. Employees may take the day off with pay if they work another weekday holiday in the same budget year, provided the state agency is open.

Recognition of Cesar Chavez. Three other states recognize Cesar Chavez. It is a state holiday in California and an optional holiday in Texas. Arizona recognizes March 31st as Cesar Chavez Day but does not make it a holiday. On the November 2002 ballot, New Mexico voters will consider a constitutional amendment designating the last Friday in March as a state holiday honoring Cesar Chavez. In Colorado, the City and County of Denver designates the last Monday in March as a holiday honoring Cesar Chavez.

School year holidays in Colorado. Local boards of education set the holidays for the annual school calendar around the minimum hours of state-required school days. If this proposal is adopted, each local board of education will determine if Cesar Chavez Day is a school holiday.

Arguments For

1) Cesar Chavez should be honored in Colorado with a state holiday rather than an optional holiday. Holidays honoring individuals focus the public's attention on the individual's contribution to American history and culture. Cesar Chavez was a nationally respected voice for social and economic justice for farm workers, especially Hispanics.

2) Many states designate holidays to honor individuals or groups important to citizens of their state. For example, Illinois celebrates Casimir Pulaski Day, Hawaii celebrates King Kamehameha Day, and Wyoming celebrates Native American Day. Cesar Chavez is a role model for all Colorado citizens for his nonviolent approach to social change, and especially for Colorado's Hispanic community. If approved, this proposal would establish eleven state holidays in Colorado, which is the same as the average number of holidays for state employees in other states.

Arguments Against

- 1) The proposal is not needed because the state currently recognizes Cesar Chavez. There are many people who deserve recognition and many ways to celebrate and honor a person's life and accomplishments without taking a day off from work. State employees already have ten days off compared to an average of nine days off for private sector employees. Another state holiday may pose a hardship on those who rely on the daily operations of state agencies.
- 2) Colorado cannot afford a new holiday due to its weakened economy. This proposal will cost the state approximately $477,000 this year because some agencies will be required to pay holiday wages to employees who will have to work on Cesar Chavez Day. If approved, the legislature may have to shift money from other state programs to pay for the holiday. Additionally, a new holiday will cost the state about $10 million annually in lost employee productivity.

Estimate of Fiscal Impact

The proposal creates one day of lost employee productivity at a cost of about $10.1 million each state budget year. Additionally, $477,000 in new state expenditures and $53,800 in federal expenditures will be needed to pay holiday wages to those employees working in facilities open 24 hours per day, seven days per week. These facilities include state prisons and human services centers.

AMENDMENT 27 CAMPAIGN FINANCE

Ballot Title: An amendment to the Colorado constitution concerning campaign finance, and, in connection therewith, reducing the amount of campaign contributions that persons may make to candidate committees, political committees, and political parties; establishing contribution limits for small donor committees; prohibiting candidate committees and political parties from making or accepting certain contributions; restricting the amount of contributions political parties and political committees may accept from certain sources; limiting contributions and expenditures that may be made by corporations or labor organizations; creating voluntary campaign spending limits; providing for a periodic adjustment of contribution and voluntary spending limits; specifying the treatment of unexpended contributions; requiring the disclosure of information about persons making electioneering communications above a specified amount; defining electioneering communications as certain near-election communications that unambiguously refer to a candidate and are targeted to voters; and incorporating into the constitution existing statutory provisions, with amendments, regarding definitions, deposits of contributions, limits on cash contributions, notice and disclosure of independent expenditures, reporting of contributions and expenditures, civil penalties, and duties of the secretary of state.

I UNDERSTAND THAT MY SIGNATURE WILL BE VERIFIED AGAINST CURRENT REGISTRATION RECORDS.

DATE _____ SIGNATURE" _____

(f) THE SIGNING OF THE SELF-AFFIRMATION ON THE RETURN VERIFICATION ENVELOPE SHALL CONSTITUTE AN AFFIRMATION BY THE VOTER, UNDER PENALTY OF PERJURY, THAT THE FACTS STATED ON THE SELF-AFFIRMATION ARE TRUE.

(g) THE SECRECY ENVELOPE AND THE BALLOT SHALL NOT CONTAIN ANY MARKINGS THAT COULD BE USED TO DETERMINE THE IDENTITY OF THE ELIGIBLE ELECTOR.

(2) NO SOONER THAN TWENTY-FIVE DAYS PRIOR TO ELECTION DAY, NOR LATER THAN 7 P.M. ON ELECTION DAY, ABSENTEE BALLOTS SHALL BE MADE AVAILABLE AT ONE OR MORE LOCATIONS AUTHORIZED BY THE DESIGNATED ELECTION OFFICIAL FOR ELIGIBLE ELECTORS WHO ARE AUTHORIZED TO VOTE PURSUANT TO APPLICABLE LAW BUT WHO WERE NOT SENT AN ABSENTEE BALLOT PURSUANT TO SUBPARAGRAPH 1(a) OF THIS SECTION. (3) NO LATER THAN TEN DAYS PRIOR TO ELECTION DAY, THE DESIGNATED ELECTION OFFICIAL SHALL PROVIDE NOTICE BY PUBLICATION OR OTHERWISE PUBLICIZE THAT BALLOTS WERE PREVIOUSLY MAILED TO ACTIVE ELIGIBLE ELECTORS PURSUANT TO THIS SECTION. THE NOTICE OR PUBLIC STATEMENT SHALL STATE THE MANNER IN WHICH AN ELIGIBLE ELECTOR WHO DID NOT RECEIVE A BALLOT BY MAIL MAY APPLY FOR AND RECEIVE A BALLOT PRIOR TO THE ELECTION.

1-7.5-110. Replacement ballots. (1) AN ELIGIBLE ELECTOR MAY OBTAIN A REPLACEMENT BALLOT IF THE BALLOT WAS DESTROYED, SPOILED, LOST, OR NOT RECEIVED BY THE ELIGIBLE ELECTOR. IN ORDER TO OBTAIN A BALLOT IN SUCH CASES, THE ELIGIBLE ELECTOR MUST SIGN A STATEMENT SPECIFYING THE REASON FOR REQUESTING THE BALLOT AND AFFIRMING UNDER PENALTY OF PERJURY THAT THE ELECTOR HAS NOT YET VOTED AND DOES NOT INTEND TO VOTE EXCEPT BY VOTING THE REPLACEMENT BALLOT. IN THE EVENT THAT AN ELECTOR DID NOT RECEIVE A BALLOT IN A PRIMARY ELECTION BECAUSE THE ELECTOR WAS AN UNAFFILIATED ELECTOR AT THE TIME THE BALLOTS WERE MAILED, THE ELECTOR MAY OBTAIN A BALLOT BY DECLARING AN AFFILIATION AS PART OF THE STATEMENT. THE STATEMENT MUST BE RECEIVED AT THE DESIGNATED ELECTION OFFICIAL'S OFFICE OR OTHER SITE AUTHORIZED BY THE DESIGNATED ELECTION OFFICIAL FOR THE ISSUANCE OF BALLOTS NO LATER THAN 7 P.M. ON ELECTION DAY.

(2) UPON RECEIPT OF A STATEMENT REQUESTING A REPLACEMENT BALLOT, THE DESIGNATED ELECTION OFFICIAL MAY ISSUE A REPLACEMENT BALLOT PERSONALLY TO THE ELIGIBLE ELECTOR AT THE DESIGNATED ELECTION OFFICIAL'S OFFICE OR OTHER SITE AUTHORIZED BY THE DESIGNATED ELECTION OFFICIAL FOR THE ISSUANCE OF BALLOTS, OR MAY, IF REQUESTED BY THE ELIGIBLE ELECTOR, MAIL THE REPLACEMENT BALLOT TO THE ELIGIBLE ELECTOR AT THE ADDRESS PROVIDED IN THE STATEMENT. THE DESIGNATED ELECTION OFFICIAL MAY, IN HIS OR HER DISCRETION, PROVIDE A REQUEST FORM TOGETHER WITH THE REPLACEMENT BALLOT, PROVIDED THAT THE SIGNED REQUEST FORM MUST BE RETURNED BY THE ELIGIBLE ELECTOR BEFORE THE ELECTOR'S BALLOT WILL BE ELIGIBLE FOR COUNTING.

(3) THE DESIGNATED ELECTION OFFICIAL SHALL KEEP A RECORD OF EACH BALLOT ISSUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THIS SECTION TOGETHER WITH A LIST OF EACH BALLOT DELIVERED BY MAIL OR OBTAINED PURSUANT TO SECTION 1-7.5-109(2). NOT WITHSTANDING THE PROVISIONS OF SECTION 1-7.5-114(2), RETURNED REPLACEMENT BALLOTS SHALL BE SET ASIDE AND NOT COUNTED UNTIL AFTER 7 P.M. ON ELECTION DAY, UNLESS THE BALLOT TRACKING SYSTEM USED BY THE DESIGNATED ELECTION OFFICIAL AUTOMATICALLY REJECTS ORIGINAL ABSENTEE BALLOTS RETURNED BY AN ELIGIBLE ELECTOR TO WHOM A REPLACEMENT ABSENTEE BALLOT HAS BEEN ISSUED, IN WHICH CASE RETURNED REPLACEMENT BALLOTS MAY BE COUNTED AS PROVIDED IN SECTION 1-7.5-114(2). IF AN ORIGINAL ABSENTEE BALLOT IS RETURNED AFTER THE ISSUANCE OF A REPLACEMENT BALLOT TO THE SAME ELIGIBLE ELECTOR, THE ORIGINAL BALLOT SHALL BE REJECTED. IF BOTH THE ORIGINAL BALLOT AND THE REPLACEMENT BALLOT ARE RETURNED, THE MATTER SHALL BE FORWARDED TO THE ATTORNEY GENERAL AND THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY FOR INVESTIGATION, AND, WHERE APPROPRIATE, PROSECUTION.

1-7.5-111. Voting and return of ballot. (1) UPON RECEIPT OF A BALLOT, AN ELIGIBLE ELECTOR WHO INTENDS TO CAST A VOTE SHALL COMPLY WITH THE INSTRUCTIONS PROVIDED FOR MARKING THE BALLOT, PLACING IT IN THE SECRECY ENVELOPE, SIGNING AND COMPLETING THE RETURN VERIFICATION ENVELOPE, AND RETURNING THE BALLOT.

(2) THE ELIGIBLE ELECTOR MAY RETURN THE MARKED BALLOT IN THE RETURN VERIFICATION ENVELOPE TO THE DESIGNATED ELECTION OFFICIAL IN ANY OF THE FOLLOWING WAYS:

(a) PLACING THE COMPLETED AND SEALED BALLOT, OR DIRECTING ANOTHER PERSON WHO IS KNOWN TO THE ELECTOR OR WHO IS A REPRESENTATIVE OF THE DESIGNATED ELECTION OFFICIAL TO PLACE IT, IN THE UNITED STATES MAIL, WITH POSTAGE PAID BY THE ELECTOR;

(b) DELIVERING THE COMPLETED AND SEALED BALLOT, OR DIRECTING ANOTHER PERSON WHO IS KNOWN TO THE ELECTOR OR WHO IS A REPRESENTATIVE OF THE DESIGNATED ELECTION OFFICIAL TO DELIVER IT, TO A SECURE DROP-OFF SITE;

(c) BY COMPLETING AND SEALING THE BALLOT AT A POLLING BOOTH LOCATION AND RETURNING IT TO AN ELECTION OFFICIAL AT THE POLLING BOOTH LOCATION.

(3)(a) SECURE DROP-OFF SITES SHALL BE LOCATED WITHIN THE JURISDICTION HOLDING THE ELECTION, UNLESS A WAIVER FOR A PARTICULAR LOCATION OUTSIDE THE JURISDICTION IS GRANTED BY THE SECRETARY OF STATE. SECURE DROP-OFF SITES SHALL BE OPEN FOR BALLOT DEPOSIT DURING THE HOURS SPECIFIED BY THE DESIGNATED ELECTION OFFICIAL NO LATER THAN TEN DAYS BEFORE THE ELECTION, AND SHALL REMAIN OPEN EACH DAY THEREAFTER UNTIL 7 P.M. ON ELECTION DAY.

(b) AT LEAST TWO ELECTION JUDGES SHALL SUPERVISE EACH SECURE DROP-OFF SITE; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, THAT THE DESIGNATED ELECTION OFFICIAL MAY

APPOINT ONE SUCH ELECTION JUDGE TO SUPERVISE A SECURE DROP-OFF SITE IF THERE ARE AN INSUFFICIENT NUMBER OF ELECTION JUDGES FOR THAT ELECTION, OR IF THE SECURE DROP-OFF SITE IS LOCATED IN A SECURE BUILDING CONTROLLED BY A GOVERNMENTAL ENTITY. BALLOT BOXES AT SECURE DROP-OFF SITES SHALL BE LOCKED AND SEALED EACH NIGHT WITH A NUMBERED SEAL UNDER THE SUPERVISION OF THE ELECTION JUDGES, AND SHALL BE TRANSFERRED DAILY TO THE RECEIVING JUDGES FOR QUALIFICATION PURSUANT TO SECTION 1-7.5-113.

(4)(a) IN ELECTIONS INVOLVING PARTISAN CANDIDATES HELD PRIOR TO JANUARY 1, 2010, THE DESIGNATED ELECTION OFFICIAL SHALL MAINTAIN POLLING BOOTH LOCATIONS ON ELECTION DAY AT EACH PUBLIC HIGH SCHOOL LOCATED AND OPERATING WITHIN THE JURISDICTION, EXCEPT THOSE SCHOOLS DESIGNATED AS CHARTER OR ALTERNATIVE SCHOOLS BY THE APPLICABLE SCHOOL DISTRICT; AT THE OFFICE OF THE DESIGNATED ELECTION OFFICIAL; AND AT ANY OTHER LOCATION DESIGNATED AS A POLLING BOOTH LOCATION BY THE DESIGNATED ELECTION OFFICIAL. THE DESIGNATED ELECTION OFFICIAL SHALL ASSIGN EACH PRECINCT TO A POLLING BOOTH LOCATION. IF A PUBLIC HIGH SCHOOL IS LOCATED WITHIN ONE MILE OF THE DESIGNATED ELECTION OFFICIAL'S OFFICE, OR IF THERE IS NO PUBLIC HIGH SCHOOL LOCATED WITHIN THE JURISDICTION, THE DESIGNATED ELECTION OFFICIAL SHALL SELECT AN ALTERNATIVE SITE TO SERVE AS A POLLING BOOTH LOCATION.

(b) IN ADDITION TO ANY OTHER LOCATION DESIGNATED BY THE DESIGNATED ELECTION OFFICIAL FOR THE ISSUANCE OF BALLOTS, ORIGINAL AND REPLACEMENT ABSENTEE BALLOTS SHALL BE MADE AVAILABLE ON ELECTION DAY AT EACH POLLING BOOTH LOCATION FOR ELIGIBLE ELECTORS SERVED BY THAT LOCATION WHO WERE NOT PREVIOUSLY ISSUED A BALLOT OR WHO FAILED TO BRING A PREVIOUSLY ISSUED BALLOT TO THE POLLING BOOTH LOCATION. ISSUANCE OF ORIGINAL AND REPLACEMENT ABSENTEE BALLOTS AT POLLING BOOTH LOCATIONS ARE SUBJECT TO THE REQUIREMENTS OF SECTION 1-7.5-109 AND SECTION 1-7.5-110. IF THE ELECTION JUDGES AT THE POLLING BOOTH LOCATION DO NOT HAVE ACCESS TO A CONTINUOUSLY UPDATED DATABASE SHOWING REGISTRATION AND BALLOT TRACKING INFORMATION FOR ELECTORS SERVED BY THAT LOCATION, EACH ORIGINAL AND REPLACEMENT BALLOT ISSUED AND CAST AT THE POLLING BOOTH LOCATION SHALL BE TREATED AS A PROVISIONAL BALLOT.

(c) IF THE DESIGNATED ELECTION OFFICIAL DETERMINES FOR A GIVEN ELECTION THAT LESS THAN FIVE PERCENT OF ELIGIBLE ELECTORS ASSIGNED TO A HIGH SCHOOL POLLING BOOTH LOCATION CAST THEIR BALLOTS AT THAT LOCATION, THE DESIGNATED ELECTION OFFICIAL NEED NOT DESIGNATE THAT HIGH SCHOOL AS A POLLING BOOTH LOCATION FOR SUBSEQUENT ELECTIONS.

(d) FOR ALL ELECTIONS HELD AFTER JANUARY 1, 2010, AND FOR ALL NONPARTISAN ELECTIONS, THE DESIGNATED ELECTION OFFICIAL SHALL MAKE AT LEAST ONE POLLING BOOTH LOCATION AVAILABLE ON ELECTION DAY.

(e) THE DESIGNATED ELECTION OFFICIAL SHALL APPOINT NO LESS THAN THREE ELECTION JUDGES FOR EACH POLLING BOOTH LOCATION IN A PARTISAN

ELECTION, AND NO LESS THAN TWO ELECTION JUDGES FOR EACH POLLING BOOTH LOCATION IN A NONPARTISAN ELECTION.

(f) THE PROVISIONS OF PART 2 OF ARTICLE 8 OF THIS TITLE SHALL NOT APPLY TO ELECTIONS CONDUCTED BY AUTOMATIC ABSENTEE BALLOT.

(g) BALLOTS CAST AT POLLING BOOTH LOCATIONS MUST BE IN THE FORM OF THE ORIGINAL ABSENTEE BALLOT OR A REPLACEMENT ABSENTEE BALLOT ISSUED TO THE ELIGIBLE ELECTOR.

(5) TO BE ELIGIBLE FOR COUNTING, ALL BALLOTS MUST BE RECEIVED AT A SECURE DROP-OFF SITE, POLLING BOOTH LOCATION, OR THE OFFICE OF THE DESIGNATED ELECTION OFFICIAL BY 7 P.M. ELECTION DAY. HOWEVER, ANY ELIGIBLE ELECTOR WAITING IN LINE AT A SECURE DROP-OFF SITE OR POLLING BOOTH LOCATION AT OR BEFORE 7 P.M. ON ELECTION DAY WHO HAS NOT YET VOTED SHALL BE ENTITLED TO VOTE.

(6) ABSENTEE BALLOTS RECEIVED AFTER 7 P.M. ON THE DAY OF THE ELECTION BUT POSTMARKED ON OR BEFORE THE DAY OF THE ELECTION SHALL REMAIN SEALED AND UNCOUNTERED, BUT THE ELECTOR'S REGISTRATION RECORD SHALL NOT BE MARKED INACTIVE OR CANCELED FOR FAILURE TO VOTE IN A GENERAL ELECTION, AND THE ELECTOR SHALL BE DEEMED AN ACTIVE VOTER.

1-7.5-112. Voting at group facilities. THE DELIVERY AND RETURN OF ABSENTEE BALLOTS ISSUED TO VOTERS RESIDING AT GROUP FACILITIES SHALL BE HANDLED IN THE SAME MANNER AS PROVIDED IN SECTION 1-8-112.

1-7.5-113. Qualification of ballots by election judges. (1) THE DESIGNATED ELECTION OFFICIAL SHALL APPOINT AT LEAST THREE ELECTION JUDGES TO RECEIVE AND QUALIFY BALLOTS IN AN AUTOMATIC ABSENTEE BALLOT ELECTION. EACH MAJOR POLITICAL PARTY SHALL BE REPRESENTED BY AT LEAST ONE JUDGE.

(2) ONE OR MORE ELECTION JUDGES SHALL, ON A DAILY BASIS, COUNT THE BALLOTS RECEIVED, BATCH THEM, DATE-STAMP THEM, AND RECORD THE NUMBER OF BALLOTS RECEIVED.

(3) (a) BEFORE A RETURNED BALLOT IS ELIGIBLE FOR COUNTING, AN ELECTION JUDGE SHALL FIRST QUALIFY THE BALLOT IN THE PRESENCE OF AT LEAST ONE OTHER RECEIVING JUDGE FROM A DIFFERENT MAJOR POLITICAL PARTY. QUALIFICATION OF BALLOTS FOR COUNTING MAY BEGIN UPON RECEIPT BY THE JUDGES, ALTHOUGH BALLOTS MAY NOT BE COUNTED UNTIL TEN DAYS BEFORE THE ELECTION AS PROVIDED IN SECTION 1-7.5-114(2). A BALLOT SHALL BE QUALIFIED BY THE ELECTION JUDGE ONLY IF:

- (I) IT IS RETURNED IN THE RETURN VERIFICATION ENVELOPE;
- (II) A COMPARISON BETWEEN THE PRINTED NAME AND ADDRESS ON THE RETURN VERIFICATION ENVELOPE AND THE REGISTRATION RECORDS SHOWS THAT THE PERSON COMPLETING THE BALLOT WAS IN FACT ELIGIBLE TO VOTE IN THE ELECTION;
- (III) THE SELF-AFFIRMATION ON THE ENVELOPE IS COMPLETE AND SIGNED BY THE ELIGIBLE ELECTOR TO WHOM THE BALLOT WAS ISSUED, AS DETERMINED BY COMPARING THE SIGNATURE ON THE SELF-AFFIRMATION TO THE SIGNATURE OF

THE ELIGIBLE ELECTOR IN THE REGISTRATION RECORDS, EXCEPT AS PROVIDED IN SUBSECTION (4) OF THIS SECTION; AND

(IV) THE ELECTION JUDGE HAS DETERMINED THAT THE ELIGIBLE ELECTOR SUBMITTING THE BALLOT HAS NOT PREVIOUSLY VOTED IN THE ELECTION.

(a.1) IF, UPON COMPARING THE SIGNATURE OF THE ELIGIBLE ELECTOR ON THE SELF-AFFIRMATION WITH THE SIGNATURE OF THE ELIGIBLE ELECTOR ON FILE WITH THE COUNTY CLERK AND RECORDER, THE ELECTION JUDGE DETERMINES THAT THE TWO SIGNATURES DO NOT APPEAR TO MATCH, THE SIGNATURES SHALL BE SIMULTANEOUSLY REVIEWED AND COMPARED BY TWO OTHER ELECTION JUDGES, NEITHER OF WHOM MAY HAVE THE SAME POLITICAL AFFILIATION. AFTER REVIEWING AND COMPARING THE SIGNATURES, IF THE TWO ELECTION JUDGES DETERMINE THAT THE SIGNATURES DO NOT APPEAR TO MATCH, AND THE ELECTION JUDGES HAVE CAUSE TO BELIEVE THAT ELECTION LAW MAY HAVE BEEN VIOLATED, COPIES OF THE ELIGIBLE ELECTOR'S SIGNATURE ON THE SELF-AFFIRMATION AND ON FILE WITH THE COUNTY CLERK AND RECORDER SHALL BE MADE. THE COPIES OF THE SIGNATURES SHALL BE FORWARDED TO THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY FOR INVESTIGATION. IF THE JUDGES DETERMINE THAT THE SIGNATURES DO MATCH, THEY SHALL FOLLOW THE PROCEDURES SET FORTH IN SUBSECTION (5) OF THIS SECTION.

(b) THE SECRETARY OF STATE SHALL PROMULGATE RULES TO ENSURE UNIFORM STANDARDS FOR THE QUALIFICATION OF BALLOTS, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO THE CIRCUMSTANCES UNDER WHICH THE DESIGNATED ELECTION OFFICIAL OR HIS OR HER DESIGNEE SHALL INVESTIGATE QUESTIONS CONCERNING THE QUALIFICATION OF BALLOTS, AND THE QUALIFICATION OF BALLOTS FOR PERSONS WHO ARE UNABLE BY REASON OF DISABILITY TO SIGN THE SELF-AFFIRMATION ON THE RETURN VERIFICATION ENVELOPE.

(4)(a) IN AN ELECTION CONDUCTED PRIOR TO JANUARY 1, 2005 UNDER THIS ARTICLE THAT DOES NOT INVOLVE PARTISAN CANDIDATES AND IS NOT HELD IN CONJUNCTION WITH, OR ON THE SAME DAY AS, A PRIMARY OR CONGRESSIONAL VACANCY ELECTION, THE DESIGNATED ELECTION OFFICIAL MAY PETITION THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR A WAIVER FROM THE REQUIREMENTS OF SUBPARAGRAPH (III) OF PARAGRAPH (a) OF SUBSECTION (3) OF THIS SECTION CONCERNING INDIVIDUAL SIGNATURE VERIFICATION. THE SECRETARY OF STATE SHALL PROMULGATE RULES GOVERNING THE CONDITIONS UNDER WHICH WAIVERS MAY BE GRANTED; PROVIDED THAT SUCH WAIVERS SHALL BE GRANTED ONLY IF THE PETITIONING JURISDICTION ESTABLISHES THAT OTHER SAFEGUARDS IN PLACE DURING THE ELECTION WILL PREVENT ELECTION FRAUD.

(b) AFTER JANUARY 1, 2005, ALL ELECTOR SIGNATURES IN ALL ELECTIONS CONDUCTED UNDER THIS ARTICLE MUST BE INDIVIDUALLY VERIFIED PURSUANT TO SUBPARAGRAPH (III) OF PARAGRAPH (a) OF SUBSECTION (3) OF THIS SECTION.

(c) NOTWITHSTANDING THE FOREGOING, IN AN ELECTION CONDUCTED PRIOR TO JANUARY 1, 2007 BY A MUNICIPALITY OR A SPECIAL DISTRICT, THE DESIGNATED ELECTION OFFICIAL FOR THE MUNICIPALITY OR SPECIAL DISTRICT MAY PETITION THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR A WAIVER FROM THE REQUIREMENTS OF SUBPARAGRAPH (III) OF PARAGRAPH (a) OF SUBSECTION (3)

OF THIS SECTION CONCERNING INDIVIDUAL SIGNATURE VERIFICATION. AFTER JANUARY 1, 2007, ALL ELECTOR SIGNATURES IN ALL ELECTIONS CONDUCTED UNDER THIS ARTICLE BY MUNICIPALITIES AND SPECIAL DISTRICTS MUST BE INDIVIDUALLY VERIFIED PURSUANT TO SUBPARAGRAPH (III) OF PARAGRAPH (a) OF SUBSECTION (3) OF THIS SECTION.

(5) IF THE BALLOT SO QUALIFIES AND IS OTHERWISE VALID, THE ELECTION JUDGE SHALL RECORD IN THE POLL BOOK THAT THE ELIGIBLE ELECTOR CAST A BALLOT AND GIVE THE SECRECY ENVELOPE TO A SECOND ELECTION JUDGE WHO IS UNAWARE OF THE IDENTITY OF THE ELIGIBLE ELECTOR. THE SECOND ELECTION JUDGE SHALL THEN OPEN THE SECRECY ENVELOPE AND PREPARE THE BALLOT FOR COUNTING. IF THE BALLOT IS NOT TO BE COUNTED IMMEDIATELY, IT SHALL BE STORED IN A SECURE LOCATION.

(6) IF THE ELECTION JUDGE DETERMINES THAT A BALLOT DOES NOT MEET THE REQUIREMENTS OF SUBSECTION (3) OR SUBSECTION (4) OR IS OTHERWISE INVALID, THE ELECTION JUDGE SHALL MARK THE RETURN VERIFICATION ENVELOPE "REJECTED" AND SHALL INDICATE ON THE ENVELOPE THE REASON FOR THE REJECTION. THE ENVELOPE SHALL BE SET ASIDE, AND THE BALLOT SHALL NOT BE COUNTED. REJECTED BALLOTS SHALL BE HANDLED IN THE SAME MANNER AS PROVIDED IN SECTION 1-8-310.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Colorado:

SECTION 1. Article IX of the Constitution of the state of Colorado is amended BY THE ADDITION OF A NEW SECTION to read:

Section 18. English Language Education for Children in Public Schools.

(1) Findings and declarations. THE PEOPLE OF COLORADO FIND AND DECLARE THAT:

(a) THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE IS THE COMMON PUBLIC LANGUAGE OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND OF THE STATE OF COLORADO. IT IS SPOKEN BY THE VAST MAJORITY OF COLORADO RESIDENTS, AND IS ALSO THE LEADING WORLD LANGUAGE FOR SCIENCE, TECHNOLOGY, AND INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS, THEREBY BEING THE LANGUAGE OF ECONOMIC OPPORTUNITY; AND

(b) IMMIGRANT PARENTS ARE EAGER TO HAVE THEIR CHILDREN ACQUIRE A GOOD KNOWLEDGE OF ENGLISH, THEREBY ALLOWING THEM TO FULLY PARTICIPATE IN THE AMERICAN DREAM OF ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL ADVANCEMENT; AND

(c) THE GOVERNMENT AND THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS OF COLORADO HAVE A MORAL OBLIGATION AND A CONSTITUTIONAL DUTY TO PROVIDE ALL OF COLORADO'S CHILDREN, REGARDLESS OF THEIR ETHNICITY OR NATIONAL ORIGINS, WITH AN AVAILABLE PUBLIC SCHOOL EDUCATION NECESSARY TO BECOME PRODUCTIVE MEMBERS OF OUR SOCIETY. FLUENCY AND LITERACY IN THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE ARE AMONG THE MOST IMPORTANT PARTS OF SUCH AN EDUCATION; AND

(d) THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS OF COLORADO OFTEN DO AN INADEQUATE JOB OF EDUCATING IMMIGRANT CHILDREN, WASTING FINANCIAL RESOURCES ON COSTLY EXPERIMENTAL NATIVE LANGUAGE PROGRAMS WHOSE FAILURE OVER PAST DECADES IS DEMONSTRATED BY THE CURRENT HIGH DROP-OUT RATES AND LOW ENGLISH LITERACY LEVELS OF MANY IMMIGRANT CHILDREN; AND

(e) YOUNG IMMIGRANT CHILDREN CAN EASILY ACQUIRE FULL FLUENCY IN A NEW LANGUAGE, SUCH AS ENGLISH, IF THEY ARE HEAVILY EXPOSED TO THAT LANGUAGE IN THE CLASSROOM AT AN EARLY AGE; AND

(f) THEREFORE IT IS RESOLVED THAT: ALL CHILDREN IN COLORADO PUBLIC SCHOOLS SHALL BE TAUGHT ENGLISH AS RAPIDLY AND EFFECTIVELY AS POSSIBLE.

(2) Definitions. IN THIS SECTION,

(a) "BILINGUAL EDUCATION," ALSO KNOWN AS NATIVE LANGUAGE INSTRUCTION, MEANS A LANGUAGE ACQUISITION PROCESS FOR STUDENTS IN WHICH ALL OR SUBSTANTIAL PORTIONS OF THE INSTRUCTION, TEXTBOOKS, OR TEACHING MATERIALS ARE IN THE CHILD'S NATIVE LANGUAGE OTHER THAN ENGLISH.

(b) "ENGLISH LANGUAGE CLASSROOM" MEANS A CLASSROOM IN WHICH THE LANGUAGE OF INSTRUCTION USED BY THE TEACHING PERSONNEL IS OVERWHELMINGLY THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE, AND IN WHICH ALL SUCH TEACHING PERSONNEL ARE FLUENT AND LITERATE IN THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE. ENGLISH LANGUAGE CLASSROOMS ENCOMPASS BOTH ENGLISH LANGUAGE MAINSTREAM CLASSROOMS AND SHELTERED ENGLISH IMMERSION CLASSROOMS.

(c) "ENGLISH LANGUAGE MAINSTREAM CLASSROOM" MEANS A STANDARD CLASSROOM, ONE IN WHICH THE STUDENTS EITHER ARE NATIVE ENGLISH LANGUAGE SPEAKERS OR ALREADY HAVE ACQUIREDED REASONABLE FLUENCY IN ENGLISH.

(d) "ENGLISH LEARNER" MEANS A CHILD WHO IS NOT FLUENT IN ENGLISH AND WHO IS NOT CURRENTLY ABLE TO PERFORM ORDINARY CLASSROOM WORK IN ENGLISH.

(e) "SHELTERED ENGLISH IMMERSION" MEANS AN ENGLISH LANGUAGE ACQUISITION PROCESS FOR STUDENTS IN WHICH NEARLY ALL CLASSROOM INSTRUCTION IS IN ENGLISH BUT WITH THE CURRICULUM AND PRESENTATION DESIGNED FOR CHILDREN WHO ARE LEARNING THE LANGUAGE. BOOKS AND INSTRUCTIONAL MATERIALS ARE IN ENGLISH AND ALL READING, WRITING, AND SUBJECT MATTER ARE TAUGHT IN ENGLISH. ALTHOUGH TEACHING PERSONNEL MAY USE A MINIMAL AMOUNT OF THE CHILD'S NATIVE LANGUAGE WHEN NECESSARY, NO SUBJECT MATTER SHALL BE TAUGHT IN ANY LANGUAGE OTHER THAN ENGLISH, AND CHILDREN IN THIS PROGRAM LEARN TO READ AND WRITE SOLELY IN ENGLISH. OTHER ASPECTS OF THIS EDUCATIONAL METHODOLOGY SHALL FOLLOW THE STANDARD DEFINITION OF "SHELTERED ENGLISH" OR "STRUCTURED ENGLISH" FOUND IN STANDARD EDUCATIONAL LITERATURE.

(3) English language education. SUBJECT TO THE EXCEPTIONS PROVIDED IN SUBSECTION (4) OF THIS SECTION ALL CHILDREN IN COLORADO PUBLIC SCHOOLS SHALL BE TAUGHT ENGLISH BY BEING TAUGHT IN ENGLISH AND ALL CHILDREN SHALL BE PLACED IN ENGLISH LANGUAGE CLASSROOMS. CHILDREN

WHO ARE ENGLISH LEARNERS SHALL BE EDUCATED THROUGH SHELTERED ENGLISH IMMERSION DURING A TEMPORARY TRANSITION PERIOD NOT NORMALLY INTENDED TO EXCEED ONE YEAR. PUBLIC SCHOOLS SHALL BE PERMITTED BUT NOT REQUIRED TO PLACE IN THE SAME CLASSROOM ENGLISH LEARNERS OF DIFFERENT AGES BUT WHOSE DEGREE OF ENGLISH PROFICIENCY IS SIMILAR. PUBLIC SCHOOLS SHALL BE ENCOURAGED TO MIX TOGETHER IN THE SAME CLASSROOM ENGLISH LEARNERS FROM DIFFERENT NATIVE-LANGUAGE GROUPS BUT WITH THE SAME DEGREE OF ENGLISH FLUENCY. ONCE ENGLISH LEARNERS HAVE ACQUIRED REASONABLE FLUENCY IN ENGLISH AND ARE ABLE TO PERFORM ORDINARY SCHOOL WORK IN ENGLISH, THEY SHALL NO LONGER BE CLASSIFIED AS ENGLISH LEARNERS AND SHALL BE TRANSFERRED TO ENGLISH LANGUAGE MAINSTREAM CLASSROOMS. AS MUCH AS POSSIBLE, PER PUPIL SUPPLEMENTAL FUNDING FOR ENGLISH LEARNERS SHALL AT LEAST BE MAINTAINED. FOREIGN LANGUAGE CLASSES FOR CHILDREN WHO ARE NOT ENGLISH LEARNERS SHALL NOT BE AFFECTED, NOR SHALL SPECIAL EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS FOR PHYSICALLY- OR MENTALLY-IMPAIRED STUDENTS BE AFFECTED.

(4) Parental waivers. (a) THE REQUIREMENTS OF SUBSECTION (3) OF THIS SECTION MAY BE WAIVED WITH THE PRIOR WRITTEN INFORMED CONSENT, TO BE PROVIDED ANNUALLY, OF THE CHILD'S PARENTS OR LEGAL GUARDIAN UNDER THE CIRCUMSTANCES SPECIFIED IN THIS SUBSECTION (4). SUCH INFORMED CONSENT SHALL REQUIRE THAT SAID PARENTS OR LEGAL GUARDIAN INITIATE THE WAIVER PROCESS AND PERSONALLY VISIT THE SCHOOL TO APPLY FOR THE WAIVER AND THAT THEY THERE BE PROVIDED A FULL DESCRIPTION IN A LANGUAGE THEY CAN UNDERSTAND OF THE EDUCATIONAL MATERIALS TO BE USED IN THE DIFFERENT EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM CHOICES AND ALL THE PUBLIC SCHOOL EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES AVAILABLE TO THE CHILD. IF A PARENTAL WAIVER HAS BEEN GRANTED, THE AFFECTED CHILD MAY BE TRANSFERRED TO CLASSES TEACHING ENGLISH AND OTHER SUBJECTS THROUGH BILINGUAL EDUCATION TECHNIQUES OR OTHER GENERALLY RECOGNIZED EDUCATIONAL METHODOLOGIES PERMITTED BY LAW. INDIVIDUAL SCHOOLS IN WHICH TWENTY STUDENTS OR MORE OF A GIVEN GRADE LEVEL RECEIVE A WAIVER SHALL BE REQUIRED TO OFFER SUCH A CLASS; IN ALL OTHER CASES, SUCH STUDENTS SHALL BE PERMITTED TO TRANSFER TO A PUBLIC SCHOOL IN WHICH SUCH A CLASS IS OFFERED, WITH THE COSTS OF SUCH TRANSFER, EXCLUDING TRANSPORTATION, TO BE PROVIDED BY THE STATE. SCHOOLS MAY REFUSE TO APPROVE ANY SUCH WAIVER APPLICATION AT THEIR SOLE DISCRETION, WITHOUT ANY NEED TO INDICATE CAUSE.

(b) THE CIRCUMSTANCES IN WHICH A PARENTAL EXCEPTION WAIVER MAY BE APPLIED FOR UNDER THIS SECTION ARE AS FOLLOWS:

(1) CHILDREN WHO ALREADY KNOW ENGLISH: THE CHILD ALREADY POSSESSES GOOD ENGLISH LANGUAGE SKILLS, AS MEASURED BY ORAL EVALUATION OR STANDARDIZED TESTS OF ENGLISH VOCABULARY COMPREHENSION, READING, AND WRITING, IN WHICH THE CHILD SCORES APPROXIMATELY AT OR ABOVE THE STATE AVERAGE FOR HIS OR HER GRADE LEVEL OR AT OR ABOVE THE FIFTH GRADE AVERAGE, WHICHEVER IS LOWER; OR

(II) OLDER CHILDREN: THE CHILD IS AGE TEN YEARS OR OLDER, AND IT IS THE INFORMED BELIEF OF THE SCHOOL PRINCIPAL AND EDUCATIONAL STAFF THAT AN ALTERNATE COURSE OF EDUCATIONAL STUDY WOULD BE BETTER SUITED TO THE CHILD'S OVERALL EDUCATIONAL PROGRESS AND RAPID ACQUISITION OF BASIC ENGLISH LANGUAGE SKILLS; OR

(III) CHILDREN WITH SPECIAL INDIVIDUAL NEEDS: THE CHILD ALREADY HAS BEEN PLACED FOR A PERIOD OF NOT LESS THAN THIRTY CALENDAR DAYS DURING THAT PARTICULAR SCHOOL YEAR IN AN ENGLISH LANGUAGE CLASSROOM AND IT IS SUBSEQUENTLY THE INFORMED BELIEF OF THE SCHOOL PRINCIPAL AND EDUCATIONAL STAFF THAT THE CHILD HAS SUCH SPECIAL AND INDIVIDUAL PHYSICAL OR PSYCHOLOGICAL NEEDS, ABOVE AND BEYOND THE CHILD'S LACK OF ENGLISH PROFICIENCY, THAT AN ALTERNATE COURSE OF EDUCATIONAL STUDY WOULD BE BETTER SUITED TO THE CHILD'S OVERALL EDUCATIONAL DEVELOPMENT AND RAPID ACQUISITION OF ENGLISH. A WRITTEN DESCRIPTION OF NO FEWER THAN TWO HUNDRED FIFTY WORDS DOCUMENTING THESE SPECIAL INDIVIDUAL NEEDS FOR THE SPECIFIC CHILD MUST BE PROVIDED AND PERMANENTLY ADDED TO THE CHILD'S OFFICIAL SCHOOL RECORDS, AND IN ORDER TO BE APPROVED THE WAIVER APPLICATION MUST CONTAIN THE ORIGINAL AUTHORIZING SIGNATURES OF BOTH THE SCHOOL PRINCIPAL AND THE LOCAL SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT. WAIVERS GRANTED UNDER THIS SUBPARAGRAPH CANNOT BE APPLIED FOR UNTIL AFTER THIRTY INSTRUCTIONAL DAYS OF A GIVEN SCHOOL YEAR HAVE PASSED, AND THIS WAIVER PROCESS MUST BE RENEWED EACH AND EVERY SCHOOL YEAR. ANY SUCH DECISION TO ISSUE SUCH AN INDIVIDUAL WAIVER IS TO BE MADE SUBJECT TO THE EXAMINATION AND APPROVAL OF THE LOCAL SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT, UNDER GUIDELINES ESTABLISHED BY AND SUBJECT TO THE REVIEW OF THE LOCAL BOARD OF EDUCATION. THE EXISTENCE OF SUCH SPECIAL INDIVIDUAL NEEDS SHALL NOT COMPEL ISSUANCE OF A WAIVER, AND THE PARENTS SHALL BE FULLY INFORMED OF THEIR OWN RIGHT TO REFUSE TO AGREE TO A WAIVER.

(5) Legal standing and parental enforcement. AS DETAILED IN SUBSECTIONS (3) AND (4) OF THIS SECTION, ALL COLORADO SCHOOL CHILDREN HAVE THE RIGHT TO BE PROVIDED AT THEIR PUBLIC SCHOOL OF CHOICE WITH AN ENGLISH LANGUAGE PUBLIC EDUCATION. THE PARENT OR LEGAL GUARDIAN OF ANY COLORADO SCHOOL CHILD SHALL HAVE LEGAL STANDING TO SUE FOR ENFORCEMENT OF THE PROVISIONS OF THIS SECTION, AND IF SUCCESSFUL SHALL BE AWARDED NORMAL AND CUSTOMARY ATTORNEY FEES AND ACTUAL AND COMPENSATORY DAMAGES, BUT NOT PUNITIVE OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES. ANY SCHOOL DISTRICT EMPLOYEE OR SCHOOL BOARD MEMBER WHO WILLFULLY AND REPEATEDLY REFUSES TO IMPLEMENT THE TERMS OF THIS SECTION MAY BE HELD PERSONALLY LIABLE FOR ATTORNEY FEES AND ACTUAL AND COMPENSATORY DAMAGES BY THE CHILD'S PARENTS OR LEGAL GUARDIAN, AND CANNOT BE SUBSEQUENTLY INDEMNIFIED FOR SUCH ASSESSED DAMAGES BY ANY PUBLIC OR PRIVATE THIRD PARTY. ANY INDIVIDUAL FOUND SO LIABLE IN A COURT OF LAW SHALL BE IMMEDIATELY REMOVED FROM OFFICE FOR MALFEASANCE, AND SHALL BE BARRED FROM HOLDING ANY POSITION OF AUTHORITY ANYWHERE WITHIN THE COLORADO GOVERNMENT OR THE PUBLIC SCHOOL SYSTEM FOR A SUBSEQUENT PERIOD OF FIVE YEARS. PARENTS WHO APPLY FOR AND ARE GRANTED EXCEPTION WAIVERS UNDER SUBPARAGRAPH (III) OF PARAGRAPH (b) OF SUBSECTION (4) OF THIS SECTION STILL RETAIN FOR TEN YEARS THEREAFTER THE FULL LEGAL RIGHT TO SUE THE INDIVIDUALS WHO GRANTED SUCH WAIVERS IF THEY SUBSEQUENTLY CONCLUDE DURING THAT PERIOD THAT THE WAIVERS WERE GRANTED IN ERROR AND ULTIMATELY INJURED THE EDUCATION OF THEIR CHILD.

(6) Standardized testing for monitoring education progress. IN ORDER TO ENSURE THAT THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRESS OF COLORADO STUDENTS IN LEARNING ENGLISH TOGETHER WITH OTHER ACADEMIC SUBJECTS IS PROPERLY MONITORED, A STANDARDIZED, NATIONALLY-NORMED WRITTEN TEST OF ACADEMIC SUBJECT MATTER GIVEN IN ENGLISH SHALL BE ADMINISTERED AT LEAST ONCE EACH YEAR TO ALL COLORADO PUBLIC SCHOOL CHILDREN IN GRADES 2 AND HIGHER WHO ARE ENGLISH LEARNERS. ONLY STUDENTS CLASSIFIED AS SEVERELY LEARNING DISABLED MAY BE EXEMPTED FROM THIS TEST. THE PARTICULAR TEST TO BE USED SHALL BE SELECTED BY THE COLORADO COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION, AND IT IS INTENDED THAT THE TEST SHALL GENERALLY REMAIN THE SAME FROM YEAR TO YEAR. THE NATIONAL PERCENTILE SCORES OF STUDENTS SHALL BE CONFIDENTIALLY PROVIDED TO INDIVIDUAL PARENTS, AND THE AGGREGATED PERCENTILE SCORES AND DISTRIBUTIONAL DATA FOR INDIVIDUAL SCHOOLS AND SCHOOL DISTRICTS SHALL BE MADE PUBLICLY AVAILABLE ON AN INTERNET WEB SITE; THE SCORES FOR STUDENTS CLASSIFIED AS ENGLISH LEARNERS SHALL BE SEPARATELY SUB-AGGREGATED AND MADE PUBLICLY AVAILABLE THERE AS WELL, WITH FURTHER SUB-AGGREGATION BASED ON THE ENGLISH LEARNER PROGRAM TYPE IN WHICH STUDENTS ARE ENROLLED. SCORES OF STUDENTS WHO ARE NEITHER EXEMPTED NOR TAKE THE TEST SHALL BE REPORTED AS ZERO. ALTHOUGH ADMINISTRATION OF THIS TEST IS REQUIRED SOLELY FOR MONITORING EDUCATIONAL PROGRESS, COLORADO PUBLIC OFFICIALS AND ADMINISTRATORS MAY UTILIZE THESE TEST SCORES FOR OTHER PURPOSES AS WELL IF THEY SO CHOOSE.

(7) Severability. IF A PROVISION OF THIS SECTION OR ITS APPLICATION TO ANY PERSON OR CIRCUMSTANCES IS HELD INVALID, THE INVALIDITY DOES NOT AFFECT OTHER PROVISIONS OR APPLICATIONS OF THIS SECTION THAT CAN BE GIVEN EFFECT WITHOUT THE INVALID PROVISION OR APPLICATION, AND TO THIS END THE PROVISIONS OF THIS SECTION ARE SEVERABLE.

(8) Interpretation. UNDER CIRCUMSTANCES IN WHICH PORTIONS OF THIS STATUTE ARE SUBJECT TO CONFLICTING INTERPRETATIONS, THE FINDINGS AND DECLARATIONS OF SUBSECTION (1) OF THIS SECTION SHALL BE ASSUMED TO CONTAIN THE GOVERNING INTENT OF THIS SECTION.

SECTION 2. Effective date - applicability. This initiative shall take effect upon proclamation of the vote by the Governor, and shall apply to all school terms beginning more than sixty days after such date.

RECOMMENDATIONS ON RETENTION OF JUDGES

Commissions on Judicial Performance were created in 1988 by the Colorado General Assembly for the purpose of providing voters with fair, responsible and constructive evaluations of trial and appellate judges and justices seeking retention in general elections. The results of the evaluations also provide judges with information that can be used to improve their professional skills as judicial officers. The Chief Justice, the Governor, the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House appoint state and local commission members. Each commission is a ten-member body comprised of four attorneys and six non-attorneys.

The State Commission on Judicial Performance developed evaluation techniques for district and county judges, justices of the supreme court, and judges of the court of appeals. According to statute, those criteria include the following: integrity; knowledge and understanding of substantive, procedural and evidentiary law; communication skills; preparation, attentiveness, and control over judicial proceedings; sentencing practices; docket management and prompt case disposition; administrative skills; punctuality; effectiveness in working with participants in the judicial process; and service to the profession and the public.

The trial judges' evaluations result from survey questionnaires completed by attorneys (including district attorneys and public defenders), jurors, litigants, probation officers, social services case workers, crime victims, court personnel and law enforcement officers. The evaluations also result from the following: relevant docket and sentencing statistics; a personal interview with the judge; a self-evaluation completed by the judge; and information from other appropriate sources, such as court observations, public hearings and documentation received from interested parties. The evaluation of the Justices of the Colorado Supreme Court and the Judges of the Colorado Court of Appeals is the product of an interview with the State Commission on Judicial Performance and survey results from attorneys and Colorado trial judges.

Each evaluation includes a narrative profile with the recommendation stated as "retain", "do not retain" or "no opinion". State statute requires a detailed explanation accompany a "no opinion" recommendation.

Voters statewide vote on Justices of the Colorado Supreme Court, Judges of the Court of Appeals, and District Court Judges for the district in which they reside. Voters will vote only for County Court Judges seeking retention in their respective counties. The following are complete narrative profiles and recommendations on retention for the justices and judges in your judicial district subject to the retention election on November 5, 2002.

Additional information may be accessed through the Colorado Courts Homepage at: <http://www.courts.state.co.us> or by calling the State Commission on Judicial Performance at (303) 861-1111.

COLORADO
SUPREME COURT

Honorable Nathan B. Coats

The State Commission on Judicial Performance unanimously recommends that Justice Nathan B. Coats BE RETAINED.

Justice Coats was appointed to the Colorado Supreme Court in May 2000. Prior to his appointment to the high court, Justice Coats was in a private law practice (1977-1978), served in the Appellate Section of the Colorado Attorney General's Office (1978-1986), and was the Chief Appellate District Attorney for the Second Judicial District (1986-2000). Justice Coats has served on many Supreme Court committees, including the Criminal Rules, Appellate Rules, Rules of Evidence and Jury Reform committees.

Although some surveyed attorneys believe that Justice Coats' opinions are "prosecution oriented," both judges and attorneys ranked Justice Coats as a "B+" in being fair and impartial to both sides of the case. Justice Coats assured the Commission that he recognizes this perceived bias in criminal cases and strives to overcome it. He said he personally evaluates cases where such concerns might be raised and seeks feedback from his fellow justices about his impartiality.

Justice Coats acknowledged that he had limited experience in civil and family law when he was appointed to the Court. He stated that he does substantial background research in these areas, including soliciting the views of colleagues on the court who have special expertise. Some commissioners were concerned that the sharp wording of a few of Justice Coats' dissents could undermine collegiality on the court. Additionally, the Commission suggests that Justice Coats expand his community involvement to ensure that he maintains the broad perspective necessary for a Supreme Court member.

Justice Coats received high marks from attorneys and trial judges in the categories of courtesy and treating parties equally regardless of race, sex or economic status. Support for retention of Justice Coats was solid among both judges and attorneys, with 84% of judges and 87% of attorneys favoring retention. The Commission unanimously recommends his retention.

COLORADO
COURT OF APPEALS

Honorable John Daniel Dailey

The State Commission on Judicial Performance unanimously recommends that Judge John Daniel Dailey BE RETAINED.

Judge Dailey was appointed to the Colorado Court of Appeals in January 2000. Prior to his appointment, Judge Dailey served in the Colorado Attorney General's Office for 21 years, most recently as Assistant Solicitor General arguing cases on the Attorney General's behalf to the appellate courts. Judge Dailey has also been an adjunct professor of law at the University of Colorado and University of Denver Colleges of Law, and has taught criminal procedure at the University of Denver College of Law following his appointment to the bench. He currently serves as chair of the Supreme Court Advisory Committee on Rules of Criminal Procedure and also serves as a member of the Supreme Court Advisory Committee on Rules of Appellate Procedure.

Judge Dailey received generally positive comments from both attorneys and trial judges who were surveyed. The trial judges uniformly commended Judge Dailey as hard working and conscientious, and none opposed his retention. The survey results from attorneys were less favorable. Some attorney comments reflect a concern that his prior work in the Attorney General's Office may influence his decisions in criminal cases. Judge Dailey told the Commission that a review of the cases he has decided, both published and unpublished, refutes that perception. He views his paramount role in deciding criminal cases as ascertaining whether the defendant received due process. Responding to some attorney comments that he is brusque in oral arguments, Judge Dailey contends it is a misinterpretation of his serious demeanor during questioning. He agreed, however, with Commission members that this perception should be addressed.

Data from the Court of Appeals demonstrate that Judge Dailey issues opinions in a timely manner. The Commission found that Judge Dailey was enthusiastic, hard working and extremely diligent in his efforts to succeed in his new role. The Commission believes he brings a common-sense approach to the job, and unanimously endorses his retention.

Honorable Henry E. Nieto

The State Commission on Judicial Performance recommends that Judge Henry E. Nieto BE RETAINED. The vote was not unanimous.

Judge Nieto was appointed to the Colorado Court of Appeals in November 1999, and is deputy chief judge of that court. He was a district judge in the First Judicial District from 1985-1999 and Chief Judge of that district from 1995-1999. From 1978-1985 he was a Jefferson County judge. Prior to his appointment to the bench, he served as deputy, chief deputy and assistant district attorney of the First Judicial District (1967-1978) and was in private law practice (1970-1974).

Judge Nieto places great importance on community service activities, which the Commission believes is important for the judiciary. He speaks frequently to clubs and schools and believes that it is important to "put a human face" on the judiciary.

While trial judges surveyed gave Judge Nieto high ratings, especially with regard to treating parties equally and assisting other judges on the court, attorneys' marks were lower. Attorneys were particularly critical in three areas: rendering well-written and understandable opinions, managing cases with minimum delay and making correct decisions based upon the law and facts. These ratings concern the Commission, which believes timely, clear and legally sound appellate decisions are essential. In his interview with the Commission, Judge Nieto stated that while he has some weaknesses in his knowledge of the law, computer skills and reading efficiency, he is working hard to improve in these areas. He also indicated that some of the criticism from the attorneys may be due to his long tenure as a trial court judge. Judge Nieto told the Commission that he was more comfortable as an appellate judge because he has more time to consider his decisions.

The Commission's lack of unanimity on Judge Nieto's retention reflects a concern that, despite his 24 years of experience on the trial bench, Judge Nieto has not met the higher standards for appellate court judges. A majority of the Commission believes, however, that this should not disqualify him from serving on the Court of Appeals, particularly in view of his willingness to work to overcome his deficiencies, and therefore supports his retention.

Larimer County Judge
Honorable C. Edward Stirman

The Eighth Judicial District Commission on Judicial Performance recommends that Judge C. Edward Stirman BE RETAINED.

Judge Stirman was appointed to the bench in June 1999. Prior to his appointment to the bench, Judge Stirman was in private practice in Fort Collins with a practice emphasis in bankruptcy, estate planning and domestic relations. He served as a District Court Magistrate for the Eighth Judicial District from September 1997 until September 1998. Judge Stirman received his undergraduate degree from Colorado State University in 1976 and his law degree from the University of Colorado in 1980. He hears criminal and civil cases in Larimer County Court.

The Commission reviewed written evaluations of Judge Stirman from attorneys and non-attorneys. The Commission conducted interviews with interested parties having functions within the county court. The Commission also considered a written self-evaluation completed by the judge and conducted a personal interview with him.

Numerous individuals cited Judge Stirman as a judge who works to understand all aspects of the law. The judge is regarded as a jurist who listens well and applies the law fairly. He expects attorneys to be well prepared and holds them accountable. He is detail oriented, a hard worker and communicates clearly. Judge Stirman is respected as a principled, ethical and moral jurist.

Interviews and surveys raised concerns regarding Judge Stirman's courtroom courtesy, demeanor and perceived arrogance. Judge Stirman received high marks for management of his docket. However, there were criticisms that his time in the courtroom could be managed more efficiently. The Commission believes that Judge Stirman needs to manage his courtroom less rigidly and in a more flexible manner as he gains more trial experience. Judge Stirman has indicated that he is now aware of these perceptions and will work to improve in these areas.

Surveyed attorneys and non-attorneys recommended that Judge Stirman be retained.

District Judge
Honorable Harlan R. Bockman

The Seventeenth Judicial District Commission on Judicial Performance recommends that Judge Harlan R. Bockman BE RETAINED.

Judge Bockman is the Chief Judge of the Seventeenth Judicial District. He was appointed to the District Court bench in October 1976. Prior to his appointment to the judgeship, he was the Assistant District Attorney in Adams County.

Judge Bockman has heard criminal, civil, domestic and juvenile cases during his tenure. His preference is criminal or civil matters. He takes pride in his knowledge of rules of evidence and laws pertaining to sentencing. He is highly respected by his fellow judges and is considered a mentor because of his disciplined study of law and the fact that he keeps current on matters relating to law.

Of the attorneys responding to the questionnaire, 84% recommended that Judge Bockman be retained, 9% recommended he not be retained and 7% had no opinion. Of the non-attorneys responding to the questionnaire, 86% recommended that Judge Bockman be retained, 5% recommended he not be retained and 9% had no opinion.

Judge Bockman's average rating by attorney respondents equaled or exceeded the average rating for other district judges in 23 out of 25 categories. Judge Bockman's average rating by non-attorney respondents equaled or exceeded the average rating for other district judges in 12 out of 20 categories. Judge Bockman received especially high ratings for his impartial treatment of all parties, regardless of age, sex, race or other considerations. While all his ratings were very high, Judge Bockman received slightly lower (approximately 1/10th of one point) ratings in the area of demonstrating courtesy for attorneys and pro se litigants when compared to his other ratings. Even these comparatively lower ratings were still very high. During his interview Judge Bockman demonstrated sincere concern about any perception of impatience on his part and indicated that he will continue to strive to improve the excellent reputation that he currently enjoys.

District Judge
Honorable John E. Popovich, Jr.

The Seventeenth Judicial District Commission on Judicial Performance recommends that Judge John E. Popovich, Jr. BE RETAINED.

Judge Popovich was appointed to the District Court bench in 1986. Prior to his appointment to the bench, Judge Popovich was an attorney for the Legal Aid Society of Colorado, was in private practice and served as a District Court Magistrate for the First Judicial District. Judge Popovich received his law degree from the University of Colorado in 1971 and was admitted to practice law in Colorado in 1972.

The Commission reviewed survey results regarding Judge Popovich from attorneys and non-attorneys. The Commission also considered a written self-evaluation completed by Judge Popovich and conducted a personal interview with him.

Judge Popovich received numerous comments on his courtesy and fairness on the bench. Both attorneys and non-attorneys made specific comments praising his respectful demeanor and impartiality.

Judge Popovich also received high ratings from both attorneys and non-attorneys in the statistical portion of the survey, with 100% of attorneys and 94% of non-attorneys giving Judge Popovich a "B" or higher in the category of being courteous towards parties and witnesses. Additionally, 87% of attorneys and 87% of non-attorneys gave Judge Popovich a rating of "B" or higher in the category of being fair and impartial. Of the attorneys responding to the survey, 89% recommended that Judge Popovich be retained in office, 3% recommended he not be retained and 8% had no opinion. Of the non-attorneys responding to the survey, 87% recommended that Judge Popovich be retained in office, 3% recommended he not be retained and 10% had no opinion.

Adams County Judge
Honorable Cindy H. Bruner

The Seventeenth Judicial District Commission on Judicial Performance recommends that Judge Cindy H. Bruner BE RETAINED.

Judge Bruner was appointed to the bench in April 1991. Prior to her appointment she served as a Deputy District Attorney. Judge Bruner has demonstrated her active interest in furthering her knowledge of the bench by attending numerous training conferences and taking judicial courses.

Her community involvement is numerous and is considered by Judge Bruner to be "important to my judicial role." Her volunteer efforts range from helping high school students learn about the judicial process to supporting public television. The Commission found her volunteer work to be a true testament to her commitment to the community.

The Commission was very impressed with Judge Bruner's dedication to the bench. She has served on many boards and continues to strive for the best judicial performance. This was demonstrated through her own identification of areas where improvements to her court could be made and her work in those areas. In addition to her own performance, Judge Bruner serves as a mentor to new judges and law students.

Finally, the Commission was extremely pleased to see the results of the questionnaires sent to attorneys and non-attorneys who appeared in the judge's courtroom. Judge Bruner rated well in all areas. She was recommended for retention by 91% of the non-attorneys surveyed with the remainder having no opinion. Most impressive was the recommendation she received from the attorneys surveyed, with 100% recommending retention. Clearly Judge Cindy H. Bruner has demonstrated her abilities and commitment to the bench.

Adams County Judge
Honorable Michael A. Cox

The Seventeenth Judicial District Commission on Judicial Performance recommends that Judge Michael A. Cox BE RETAINED.

Judge Cox was appointed to the Adams County Court bench in January 1995. Prior to his appointment, Judge Cox was engaged in a general private practice and has enjoyed handling all types of cases. Judge Cox received his undergraduate degree from the University of Denver and his law degree from the University of Denver College of Law in 1979. Judge Cox presently hears criminal cases. For recreation, he participates in horse related shows and events with his daughter and wife.

The Commission reviewed written evaluations of Judge Cox from both attorneys and non-attorneys, including written comments that expounded on the evaluator's experiences with the judge. The Commission also considered a written self-evaluation completed by Judge Cox and conducted a personal interview with him.

Judge Cox loves his job and commented that he took seriously the criticism contained in the evaluation questionnaires. In dealing with various comments referencing his fast talking style, Judge Cox has instituted a method in his courtroom to remind him to slow his speech when explaining the law or otherwise communicating with the public in his courtroom. He asserts that this method has assisted him in being more aware of his speaking style, and he has modified his speed when necessary.

Judge Cox received high ratings in most every category from both attorneys and non-attorneys, but especially from non-attorneys. There was a minor concern by attorneys of Judge Cox's courtesy toward parties and witnesses and a concern by non-attorneys of his courtesy toward attorneys. The Commission feels that Judge Cox is aware of the comments and will adjust his demeanor accordingly.

Of the attorneys responding to the questionnaires, 80% recommended that Judge Cox be retained, 18% recommended he not be retained and 2% had no opinion. Of the non-attorneys responding to the questionnaires, 90% recommended that he be retained, 2% recommended that he not be retained and 8% had no opinion.

Adams County Judge
Honorable Emil A. Rinaldi

The Seventeenth Judicial District Commission on Judicial Performance recommends that Judge Emil A. Rinaldi BE RETAINED.

Judge Rinaldi was appointed to the bench in August 1984. Prior to his appointment, Judge Rinaldi was a Deputy District Attorney. He received his undergraduate degree from Binghamton University, New York in 1973, and his law degree from the University of Colorado in 1980. Judge Rinaldi hears predominately criminal cases. He is actively involved in the community, primarily supporting various high school activities.

The Commission reviewed written evaluations of Judge Rinaldi from attorneys and non-attorneys, including written verbatim comments attached to the evaluation questionnaires. The Commission also reviewed a self-evaluation prepared by the judge. The Commission held a public hearing on April 4, 2002, and no comments were made at the hearing regarding Judge Rinaldi. A citizen did call the Commission chair to voice support for the judge. The Commission completed its evaluation by personally interviewing Judge Rinaldi.

The results of the survey were positive for Judge Rinaldi. Ninety percent of non-attorneys and 76% of attorneys recommended retention. In addition, only 3% of non-attorneys and only 16% of attorneys recommended that Judge Rinaldi not be retained. The remainder of the respondents had no opinion.

The survey results from non-attorneys generally placed Judge Rinaldi at or above survey results for all county and trial judges in the categories of courtesy, impartiality, communication skills, judicial temperament, diligence and application of the law. The written comments from non-attorneys were positive with only a few respondents expressing mild criticisms. The results of the attorney survey ranked Judge Rinaldi consistent with the results for other county and all trial judges. The scores and written comments were generally positive with some criticisms related to courtesy. During his interview, Judge Rinaldi acknowledged the comments and expressed his commitment to improve.

Based on the results of the survey and personal interview, the Commission found Judge Rinaldi to be a competent and fair judge. The Commission recommends that Judge Rinaldi be retained.

Adams County Judge
Honorable Sabino E. Romano

The Seventeenth Judicial District Commission on Judicial Performance recommends that Judge Sabino E. Romano BE RETAINED.

Judge Romano was appointed to the County Court bench in 1986 by former Governor Lamm. Prior to his appointment to the bench, Judge Romano was in private practice and served as a Magistrate for the Eighteenth Judicial District.
