The Motor Carrier Lawyers Association, founded in 1937, has more than six hundred members in the United States and Canada. The objects of the Association are to maintain the honor and dignity of the members of the legal profession who practice motor carrier law before the Interstate Commerce Commission and state regulatory bodies and to assist those Commissions in matters of practice and procedure before them, and in the establishment and maintenance of proper and ethical standards of practice by members of the Association and others who practice before those Commissions
