NATURAL RESOURCES

The land the air the waters
All the people all the creatures
All the dwelling places

Energy sweet music
Power of community
Witness the river

Exotic tongues
Attentive listeners
Honest translations

Men and women interplay
From smaller streams
Those who listen well

Call to others
Nature lays the course
Celebrate the callers

All creative spaces
Each and every breath
May inspire.

EVER-CREATING INTELLIGENCE

Wetter wets, drier dries, more variability, the spinal cord carries the brain's message to the body. Hello?!

The primary message, provide blood to the heart, water, nutrients, and oxygen. Always the question of civilization remains the same

Survive, grow, adapt, make the best decisions you can based on the best available information, study nature's inter-working.

How all is individual, how all is interconnected, as water moves through the earth, the air, in a continuous cycle of renewal

Going home, going forth, to and from the center of an ever-creating intelligence.
