THE JUDGES OF THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE TENTH CIRCUIT

CHIEF JUDGE WILLIAM J. HOLLOWAY, JR.

The son of a former Oklahoma governor, Judge Holloway was born in Hugo, Oklahoma, in 1923. He and his family moved to Oklahoma City in 1927. He served as a First Lieutenant in the Army during World War II. He then returned to complete his undergraduate studies at the University of Oklahoma, receiving his B.A. in 1947. He graduated from Harvard Law School in 1950.

In 1951 and 1952, Judge Holloway was an attorney with the Department of Justice in Washington, D.C. Afterwards, he returned to private practice in Oklahoma City where he was appointed to the Tenth Circuit by Lyndon B. Johnson in 1968 and became Chief Judge on September 15, 1984. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Gamma Delta.

JUDGE JAMES K. LOGAN

Judge Logan was born in Quenemo, Kansas, in 1929. He received his A.B. from the University of Kansas in 1952 and was graduated magna cum laude from Harvard Law School in 1955. He went on to be U.S. Circuit Judge Walter Huxman's law clerk in 1956 and then practiced with the Los Angeles firm of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher. He became Dean of the University of Kansas Law School in 1961 and served in the capacity until 1968.

Since 1961 he has been a visiting professor at Harvard Law School, The University of Texas Law School, Stanford University, and the University of Michigan. He was a commissioner for the U.S. District Court from 1964 until 1967 and was a candidate for the U.S. Senate in 1968.

Judge Logan is a Rhodes Scholar, a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Order of the Coif, Beta Gamma Sigma, Omicron Delta Kappa, Pi Sigma Alpha, Alpha Kappa Psi, and Phi Delta Phi. He has co-authored numerous books on estate planning and administration. In 1977 he was appointed to the United States Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit.

JUDGE JAMES E. BARRETT

The son of the late Frank A. Barrett, who served as Wyoming's Congressman, Governor, and U.S. Senator, Judge Barrett was born in 1922 in Lusk, Wyoming. He attended the University of Wyoming for two years prior to his service in the Army during World War II. After the War, he attended Saint Catherine's College at Oxford University. He received his LL.B. from the University of Wyoming in 1949. In 1973 he was given the Distinguished Alumni Award from his alma mater.

Prior to his appointment, Judge Barrett had been involved in private practice in Lusk and had served as County and Prosecuting Attorney for Niobrara County; Town Attorney for the towns of Lusk and Manville; and attorney for the Niobrara County Consolidated School District. In 1967 he was appointed by Governor Stanley K. Hathaway to serve as Wyoming Attorney General and he remained in that position until 1971.

Judge Barrett is a member of the Judicial Conference Subcommittee on Federal Jurisdiction, the U.S. Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court of Review, and is a trustee of Saint Joseph's Children's Home. He was appointed to the Court in 1971.

JUDGE MONROE G. MCKAY

Judge McKay was born in Huntsville, Utah, in 1929 and lives in Provo. He graduated from Brigham Young University in 1957 with high honors. He received his J.D. from the University of Chicago and became the law clerk for Justice Jesse A. Udall of the Arizona Supreme Court in 1960. From 1961 to 1974, Judge McKay was with the firm of Lewis and Roca in Phoenix, taking two years out to serve as Director of the United States Peace Corps in Malawi, Africa. He was a law professor at Brigham Young University from 1974 until he was appointed to the Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals in 1977.
