<sup>1</sup> An important change in the docket fee schedule is in the filing of an action in divorce, annulment, or separate maintenance wherein any other than basic relief (e.g., the payment of alimony or restraining orders) is sought; an additional fee of five dollars is to be charged at the time of entry of such decree or order.

<sup>2</sup> Notice that by providing for a lower docket fee in original filings in courts of limited jurisdiction, the legislature has given tacit instructions that actions having a claim for damages in the amount of two thousand dollars or less should be filed in the court of that jurisdiction.
