SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON TOPICAL LUNCHEONS INVITES YOUR SUGGESTIONS

Following publication in the December, 1950, Dicta of a proposal to hold "topical luncheons," the first luncheon was held January 29, 1951, under the moderatorship of Royal C. Rubright, author of the proposal. The topic discussed was: "What important points are not covered in the ordinary printed Agreement for Sale and Purchase of Real Estate?" Too many lawyers requested reservations for the first session so that an additional session was held on the same topic on February 19, 1951.

In order to broaden the field to be covered by these topical luncheons, it seemed fitting to appoint a special committee of the Denver Bar Association to consider additional topics and future meetings involving other fields of law. President Fritz A. Nagel of the Denver Bar Association announces appointment of the following committee for this purpose:

L. Berwyn Ullstrom, Louis G. Isaacson, William Hedges Robinson, Jr., T. Raber Taylor, James D. Doyle, Richard Tull, Charles Works, and Royal C. Rubright, chairman.

The committee is considering topics for future luncheons and urges all members of the bar association to send to any committee member any topic which he would like discussed at some future meeting. This program is designed to meet the needs of practicing lawyers and to share helpful advice and suggestions. Let us know what you want and we will try to plan a topical luncheon covering the problems which are of particular interest to you.
