Possible modes of disposition, including: inter vivos gifts, joint tenancies; living trust, both revocable and irrevocable; life insurance trusts; a will both with and without a testamentary trust; a close family corporation.

In the afternoon, Horace N. Hawkins, Jr., will carry through the administration of John's estate as finally planned by the panel in the morning, after which T. Raber Taylor will "walk through" the state and federal income tax returns of the decedent and of the estate, pointing out the differences between the state and federal requirements. If time permits, he will also highlight some of the distinctions between the state and federal laws and regulations regarding federal estate and state inheritance tax returns. The entire afternoon session will be devoted to the practical application of the probate and tax laws rather than to a theoretical interpretation of the legal problems involved.

At the noon luncheon Judge C. Edgar Kettering will discuss the administration of estates from still another angle—that of the judge who is on the receiving end of the lawyer's efforts.

To open the day the Junior Bar Section will hold a breakfast meeting at 8:15 A.M.

And to bring the day to a climax, Carl B. Rix, president of the American Bar Association will be the speaker at the informal banquet to be held at the hotel in the evening.

Milton Shrednik's seven-piece string ensemble will furnish music at the dinner, and special entertainment will be by the "Men of the West" quartet.

DON'T MISS THE JUNE 7 MEETING.

"Who's Who—Women Lawyers" Soon To Be Published

Nearing completion is the new WHO'S WHO—WOMEN LAWYERS. Editor of this book is Laura Miller Derry, Louisville attorney, active practitioner, participant and office holder in local, national and international bar associations during the past ten years. She recently completed her term as President of the National Association of Women Lawyers and is now Director of that organization. For two years she has served as Recording Secretary of the Women Lawyers International Association. Kappa Beta Pi, oldest international legal sorority, recently conferred rare honorary membership upon Mrs. Derry at a ceremony in Washington.

Assembling names and addresses of the several thousand women lawyers in the United States was no easy task, because available lists were frequently incomplete. If any woman lawyer of this state has not received a questionnaire, she should contact the editor at 509 Kentucky Home Life Building, Louisville, Kentucky, at once.

Some Facts Concerning District, County, and Justice Courts in Colorado

By ALBERT E. SHERLOCK, Denver Chairman of the Justice Courts Committee, and STANLEY H. JOHNSON, Executive Secretary of the Judiciary Committee of the Colorado Bar Association.

Complete data is being compiled by the Judiciary Committee, with the help of the district and county chairmen, upon the district, county, and justice courts in Colorado. Although the extensive questionnaires have not all been returned, some interesting facts concerning these courts are here presented.

District Courts

The following tabulation, based upon the 1940 census, shows, as of that date, the counties contained within each judicial district, the number of judges for each district, the population for each county, and for each district, and the number of people in each county being served by each district judge.
