Eight Candidates Take July Bar Examinations

Eight applications for leave to take the bar examinations July 5, 6, 7 and 8, were filed. For the first time in several years no women were among the applicants.

The names and addresses of the candidates are: Toshio Ando, 2215 South Columbine St., Denver; Clesson Yasuto Chikasuye, 1736 Washington St., Denver; Thomas Lester Dixon, 4845 Decatur St., Denver; Albert A. Gallegos, 725 Fourteenth St., Boulder; Stanley William Prisner, 2001 South Grant St., Denver; Wilbur Ernest Rocchio, 972 Broadway, Boulder; Robert Swanson, 1554 Logan St., Denver (admitted to practice in the supreme court of Wyoming, September 14, 1943); Wm. Justus Wilkinson, 601 East Eighth St., Loveland.

Wanted---Volume I, Denver Bar Association Record

The Colorado supreme court library is in need of a file of volume one of the Denver Bar Association Record in order to complete its set of that magazine and its successor, DICTA. The library also would like to have a file of the Jealous Mistress, of which it has no copies.

It Speeds the Fight on Every Front!

In this staff officer's hands, the familiar telephone is a weapon of war. It controls the striking power of our forces in the whole area. Over it flash orders that help our fighting men to drive the enemy back.

This is one reason why we are unable to provide telephone service for everyone, when and where needed at home. The understanding of the public is appreciated.
