1945 ESSAY CONTEST

Conducted by

AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION

Pursuant to terms of bequest of Judge Erskine M. Ross, Deceased

Information for Contestants

Subject to be discussed:

"The Development of the Doctrine of Stare Decisis and the Extent to Which It Should Be Applied."

Time when essay must be submitted:

On or before March 15, 1945.

Amount of Prize:

Three Thousand Dollars.

Eligibility:

Contest will be open to all members of the Association in good standing whose applications for membership in the Association have been received at the headquarters office of the Association in Chicago prior to January first of the calendar year in which the award is made, except previous winners, members of the Board of Governors, officers and employees of the Association.

No essays will be accepted unless prepared for this contest and not previously published. Each entryman will be required to assign to the Association all right, title and interest in the essay submitted and the copyright thereof.

An essay shall be restricted to five thousand words, including quoted matter and citations in the text. Footnotes or notes following the essay will not be included in the computation of the number of words, but excessive documentation in notes may be penalized by the judges of the contest. Clearness and brevity of expression and absence of iteration or undue prolixity will be taken into favorable consideration.

Anyone wishing to enter the contest shall communicate promptly with the Executive Secretary of the Association, who will furnish further information and instructions.
