

July 2021

Notes

Dicta Editorial Board

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.du.edu/dlr>

Recommended Citation

Notes, 17 Dicta 47 (1940).

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Denver Law Review at Digital Commons @ DU. It has been accepted for inclusion in Denver Law Review by an authorized editor of Digital Commons @ DU. For more information, please contact jennifer.cox@du.edu, dig-commons@du.edu.

COLORADO JUNIOR BAR CONFERENCE PLANS REGIONAL MEETINGS

Following a successful annual meeting held in the fall at Colorado Springs the members of the Colorado Junior Bar Conference are enthusiastically engaged in carrying out the conference program.

Under the sponsorship of Mark H. Harrington of Denver, former State Chairman, Max M. Gilford of Los Angeles, California, an Associate Director of the Public Information Program, came to Denver to further the activity in Colorado in the program. Mr. Gilford conferred with the State Director, J. Quigg Newton, Jr., of Denver, and with a number of other active committeemen.

In continuing the policy formulated last year of holding regional meetings in various parts of the state, Mr. Gilford's visit provided the occasion for the first of such meetings to be held in Denver. He was the guest speaker at a luncheon held on December 28 at the Denver Athletic Club, which was attended by twenty-five Denver members of the conference. The meeting was presided over by Hubert D. Henry, State Chairman for Colorado. Edward J. Ruff of Denver, Chairman of the Committee on Meetings, was in charge of the arrangements.

Following Mr. Gilford's address, which dealt not only with the objects of the public information program but also with the mechanics for putting the program into operation, plans were discussed for holding similar meetings in Denver of conference members. Mr. Gilford's visit to Denver furnished a real impetus to holding further meetings. The chairman also announced that further regional meetings would be held in other parts of the state in connection with the legal institutes which are being planned for this year.

PERSONAL EVENTS FROM FORT COLLINS

Judge Harry H. Hartman spent the holidays with his daughter, Mrs. Paul R. Bliss, and family at Palo Alto, California. L. R. Temple spent the Christmas season with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Griffin, at South Orange, N. J. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. March and sons, Arthur, Jr., and Tommy, have just returned from California, where they visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. March, at Long Beach during the holidays. Mr. and Mrs. Fancher Sarchet have left on a three weeks trip, expecting to go as far south as New Orleans.

—DALE SHANNON, Correspondent.