Robert H. Jackson to Speak at Annual Meeting to Be Held in Colorado Springs, September 27 and 28

Robert H. Jackson, Attorney General of the United States, will deliver the main address at the Annual Meeting of the Colorado Bar Association, according to Edward L. Wood of Denver, convention chairman. Mr. Jackson will speak Friday evening, September 27th, in the Little Theatre of the Broadmoor Hotel at Colorado Springs.

This year's program brings several innovations. Sectional meetings will be held Saturday morning, September 28th, and a type of legal institute is planned for that afternoon. Irrigation lawyers in the state have proposed a section on irrigation be added to the State Bar organization. An interesting program of discussion has been built around the topic of underground waters and federal-state relationships in water problems.

During the time that the sectional meeting on irrigation is being held, a similar meeting dealing with probate law and practice is also scheduled. Having for its theme—What the law now is and what the law should be—this section has as speakers both probate judges and practicing attorneys.

The legal institute meeting, which will be held on Saturday afternoon, will deal with trial practice. A trial judge will make suggestions in pleading and proving a case, and several lawyers will discuss the methods of preparing and trying a case.

Jesse R. S. Budge of Salt Lake City, candidate on the Republican ticket for Justice of the Supreme Court of Utah, will be the only speaker at the Annual Banquet. It is planned to terminate the dinner by not later than 10:30 o'clock P. M. An entertainment program has been arranged for the ladies. The tentative program follows:

All Colorado Lawyers Receive Code Revision Draft: Subscriptions Still Needed for Code Fund

Copies of the second proposed draft of the rules were mailed to every attorney in the state during the latter part of July, according to Philip Van Cise of Denver, chairman of the Code Revision Committee. More than 1,725 copies were mailed out.

Lawyers desiring to criticize the draft should have their criticisms to Chairman Van Cise by September 1st. A discussion will be had on the revision at the annual meeting of the State Association, and the final draft will thereafter be submitted to the Supreme Court for action.

The cost of this work to date has exceeded $1,500. A committee working under Chairman Wilbur Denious of Denver is attempting to raise the $700 required to meet this cost. Out-of-Denver lawyers, especially in Pueblo, Grand Junction, and Greeley, have contributed to the fund in greater numbers proportionally than in Denver. Several lawyers have doubled their original subscriptions. All lawyers who have failed so far to contribute to the fund are asked to send checks to either Mr. Denious or to Edward C. King, treasurer of the State Bar.

Due to a misprint, the name of John W. O'Hagan and Clay Apple were erroneously spelled in the previous published list of contributors. Persons who have sent in contributions since the last list was published are:

Charles Sabin, La Junta	Winters & Nagel, Denver
A. T. Stewart, Pueblo	Hodges-Vidal & Goree, Denver
Henry Allen, La Junta	H. W. Martin, Monte Vista
S. Arthur Henry, Denver	George W. Lane, Durango
Worth Allen, Denver	Beise & McCloskey, Durango
Rothgerber & Appel, Denver	James M. Noland, Durango
Dudley Strickland, Sr., Denver	R. S. Clements, Durango
Schey & Schey, Longmont	A. Rex Mollette, Durango
Southeastern Colorado Bar Assn.	Emigh & Hatfield, Durango
Frederick P. Cranston, Denver

The Weld County Bar Association at the meeting held July 1, 1940, elected the following officers for the coming year:

President.....	E. H. Houtchens, Greeley
Vice-President.....	Lee J. West, Greeley
Secretary-Treasurer.....	Robert M. Gilbert, Greeley
Director.....	Herman E. Crist, Fort Lupton
Director.....	David J. Miller, Greeley

The John W. O'Hagans of Greeley announced the arrival on June 27th of a baby girl. They have named her Maureen. According to John, the "wife and baby are doing nicely, but the father is in doubt."
