

January 1936

Colorado Bar Association Annual Meeting

Dicta Editorial Board

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.du.edu/dlr>

Recommended Citation

Colorado Bar Association Annual Meeting, 13 Dicta 277 (1936).

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Denver Law Review at Digital Commons @ DU. It has been accepted for inclusion in Denver Law Review by an authorized editor of Digital Commons @ DU. For more information, please contact jennifer.cox@du.edu, dig-commons@du.edu.

Colorado Bar Association Annual Meeting

vindicate its authority in this department of the people's government. It would be recreant to the great trust reposed in it if it did not guard every agency by which justice is administered. To safeguard the practice of the law, which touches so intimately the administration of justice, and to promote the welfare of the people, whose ministers we are, this court has ordained certain standards of character and education as a prerequisite to admission to the bar. These standards are high, as indeed they ought to be, and there is constant pressure to elevate them still higher, all to the end that the people may be assured the best possible service in the dispatch of their legal business. None must be permitted to evade these requirements by doing indirectly what they cannot do directly."

COLORADO BAR ASSOCIATION ANNUAL MEETING

The 39th annual meeting of The Colorado Bar Association will be held in the Casino of the Stanley Hotel at Estes Park on September 18 and 19, 1936, the session convening at 1 p. m. on the 18th and ending with the annual dinner at the hotel at 7:45 p. m. on the 19th.

U. S. Senator David I. Walsh, of Massachusetts, delivers the annual address on Friday evening at 8:30. President Vidal's address will be on "A Lawyer's Principal Duty." Other papers will be given by Philip Hornbein, Hudson Moore, Malcolm Lindsey, Fred Farrar and Erskine R. Myer.

The Association will receive the final report of its Committee on Integration of the Bar and act thereon.

The Stanley Hotel is conducted on the American plan. Special convention rates are offered its registered guests, to whom the annual dinner will be presented without additional charge. To others the cost will be $2 per plate. Bus service from Denver to Estes Park and return will supply requisite transportation at P. U. C. rates.

A heavy attendance is anticipated.