4. In such a case, a warranty as to description, quantity, or productiveness is not broad enough to include a mistake of the seller in delivering the wrong kind of seed, such as a delivery of clover seed where alfalfa seed was ordered, and in such case, such written warranty has no applicability.—Judgment affirmed.

JUDGMENTS—FOREIGN—PLEADING—SUFFICIENCY—Gobin vs. Citizens State Bank—No. 12847—Decided March 20, 1933—Opinion by Mr. Justice Campbell.

3. In a petition, it is not sufficient to allege that the plaintiff recovered a judgment. The allegation must be made that such judgment was duly made or given.

4. In order that an action may be maintained in one state upon a judgment recovered in another state, it is necessary that the judgment should be a valid and final adjudication remaining in full force and virtue in the state of its rendition and capable of being enforced by final process.

5. A judgment of a sister state cannot be impeached for fraud.

6. Where a judgment of a sister state is attacked for fraud, resort must be made to the Court that rendered the judgment except in cases where the original court would itself allow the defense of fraud in an action on the judgment.—Judgment reversed.
