ANNUAL REPORTS OF COMMITTEES OF THE DENVER BAR ASSOCIATION

REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT

To the Members of the Denver Bar Association:

Accompanying this memorandum are the reports of most of our Committees for the past year. Personally, I desire to add to these reports only the statement that the Chairmen and other members of these Committees have worked faithfully, diligently, and cheerfully throughout the year. The Bar Association, and the community as well, are indebted to these attorneys for the work which they have performed.

Such other matters as I might mention here will be found in my report entitled "The Present Year", in the Denver Bar Association's Year Book, which is fresh from the press.

I take this opportunity to thank each member of the Bar Association for the friendly, tolerant, and helpful attitude shown toward me during the past year. It has been a pleasure as well as an honor for me to serve the Association during the past year.

Faithfully yours,

HENRY W. TOLL

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON LUNCHEON MEETINGS

This is, and we take pleasure in submitting it to you, the report of the Luncheon Meetings Committee of its activities during 1928-1929.

It seems to us, and we say it with modesty, (for, after all, any credit goes to our President and the speakers,) that the noon meetings have been exceptionally interesting and entertaining this year. We have had a good many distinguished
