REPORT OF GRIEVANCE COMMITTEE

The Grievance Committee has disposed of all matters submitted. The majority of complaints have been settled after conference with the attorney and the complainant. Six cases have been referred to the Committee on Grievances of the Colorado Bar Association with recommendation that action be taken.

Respectfully,
ERNEST L. RHOADS, Chairman

REPORT OF LEGAL AID COMMITTEE

The Legal Aid Committee of the Denver Bar Association has held four meetings during the current fiscal year, the first meeting being on February 8, 1929. While there was some delay in getting our work started, we have, since the date of its inception, pushed it forward to the best of our ability.

We were advised that various members of the Bar had made informal complaints about the Legal Aid Society of Denver, and of the way in which its work was being conducted. The attorney who was reported to have made such complaint was in every instance interviewed personally by the chairman or one of the other members of our committee. Cards were sent out by the Bar Association to all its members, inviting suggestions concerning the manner in which the work of the Legal Aid Society was being conducted. In response we received 16 cards and letters containing various suggestions.

On April 24 we held a meeting at which Mr. James H. Pershing, President of the Legal Aid Society, and Mr. Horace N. Hawkins, Vice President of the Society, were present. Mr.
