REPORT OF PUBLICITY COMMITTEE

We have created no sensations; we have done nothing spectacular; but we have attempted to give publicity to the meetings of the association and to its activities, not only for the benefit of the public but for that of the lawyers as well.

Among other things, we have contributed an item once each month to the American Bar Association Journal on the activities of our Denver Bar Association, and we commend this task to our successors as one we believe worthy of perpetuation.

Respectfully submitted,

JOSEPH C. SAMPSON, Chairman

FOURTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE LEGAL AID SOCIETY

This Fourth Annual Report* of the Secretary and General Attorney of the Legal Aid Society of Denver covers the period from December 1, 1927 to November 30, 1928, as far as the tables of statistics and the financial tabulations are concerned, in order to conform to the fiscal year of the Denver Community Chest. The financial report of the Treasurer is also appended.

Events in the life of the Society, to date March 9, 1929, will be covered. The Society was organized November 11, 1924 under the auspices of the Denver Bar Association, and incorporated February 26, 1925.

The officers and other members of the Executive Committee and the members of the Board of Directors selected at that time are to be commended for having served the Society faithfully. Since then Mr. Halsted L. Ritter, the president, left Denver, and Mr. George C. Manly, former Dean of the Law School of the University of Denver, has been the acting president. Mr. Wallbank has been the Treasurer during the whole period.

Editor's Note:* The Society being closely allied with the Association, it is appropriate that its annual report be presented in conjunction with those of the committees of the Association. Due to limitations of space, certain portions of the report are omitted; the summary of statistics is also reduced.
