FOREIGN AFFAIRS

The Foundation for the Advancement of the Social Sciences is planning a series of noon luncheon discussions of foreign affairs, to be held on Fridays in the Colorado Hall of the Cosmopolitan Hotel. The first one will be held on Friday, June 28, and the others on the successive Fridays in July. Lecturers who speak with authority upon the subjects under consideration are being secured to open the question in formal address. In some instances where the question is controversial, two speakers will be present to give opposing sides. The speeches will always be followed by discussion and questions. The plan is modeled somewhat after the celebrated Foreign Policy Association luncheons held in New York City on alternate Saturday afternoons, which are attended by a thousand or more of the leading citizens of New York City.
