VOL. III

DENVER, APRIL, 1926

No. 4

To the Members of The Denver Bar Association:

The Secretary is in receipt of the following communication, which explains itself:

"Denver, Colorado
March 26, 1926

Albert J. Gould, Esq.,
Secretary, Denver Bar Association
Denver, Colorado

Dear Sir:

It seems fitting that as the present officers and committees, whose terms expire July 1st, 1926, are charged with the responsibility of planning this Association's part in connection with the approaching July meeting of the American Bar Association that they should continue in office until that meeting is concluded. I, therefore, offer the suggestion that our by-laws be suspended to permit of such extension, to which end the following resolution will be offered at the next meeting of the Association:

'RESOLVED, that Section 1 of Article V and Section 3 of Article VII of the by-laws of this Association be suspended in the following respects: That the 1926 Annual Meeting for the election of officers shall be held the last Monday of May, 1926; that all nominations and notices in respect thereof be postponed in accordance herewith, and that the present officers and committees of this Association shall hold office until August 1, 1926.'

Will you please give proper notice hereof.

Very truly yours,
(Signed) Horace N. Hawkins."

In accordance with the above request and in compliance with the by-laws of this Association, you are hereby respectfully notified that the above mentioned Resolution will be presented at the next meeting of the Association to be held April 5, 1926, at the Chamber of Commerce Building, at 12:15 o'clock P. M.

(Signed) Albert J. Gould, Jr.
Secretary
